self to his host as the clock was striking, and the two sat down to dinner. Five minutes later the other guest appeared, with a laughing apology for being late, which, he said, was entirely the fault of his watch. On the following day the London appointment, with a large increase of salary, was given to him who had learned the business value of promptness.

A HELPFUL COLT.

One rainy day I opened the barn door and endeavored to call in the cows, as I did not care to walk in the mud. One cow refused to come, although I called her by name repeatedly.

A colt, standing at the other side of the yard, watched me as I vainly tried to drive the cow without stepping into the mire.

Then the colt quietly stepped up to her and bit her.

Of course she moved. He followed, giving her a nip whenever she moved in the wrong direction, until she went through the door into the barn. Then he went back to the other side of the yard.

THE PRINCE AND THE DAISY.

A prince went into the vineyard to examine it. He came to the peach tree, and said, "What are you doing for me?" The tree said, "In the spring I give my blossoms and fill the air with fragrance, and on my boughs hangs the fruit which men will gather and carry into the palace for you."

"Well done!" said the prince. To the chesnut he said, "What are you doing?"

"I am making nests for the birds, and shelter cattle with my leaves and spreading branches." "Well done!" said the prince.

Then he went down to the meadow, and asked the grass what it was doing. "We are giving our lives for others, for your sheep and cattle, that they may be nourished." And the prince said, "Well done!"

Last of all he asked the tiny daisy what it was doing, and the daisy said, "Nothing, nothing. I cannot make a nesting place for the birds, and I cannot give shelter for the cattle, and I cannot send fruit into the palace, and I cannot even give food for the sheep and cows—they do not want me in the meadow. All I can do is, to be the best little daisy I can be." And the prince bent down and kissed the daisy, and said, "There is none better than thee."

KILLING BUTTERFLIES.

Stopping at the seashore we saw a number of interesting little children gathering butterflies, grasshoppers and other varieties of insects, and fastening them with pins to the side of the hotel, where the poor creatures were writhing and struggling to escape. It was not the fault of the children. They were very young and knew no better. They did not once dream of the suffering endured by these insects, and on being told of it all assented to their being at once killed, and cheerfully stopped further pursuit of them. But it was your fault, fathers and mothers of those children, and one for which God holds you accountable. If you neglect your duties to your children in that period of life when the moulding of their characters is in your hands, and they grow up more and more merciless, until in your old age you reap the harvest you have sown, you have no one to blame but yourselves.

We have been told of several instances in which Sunday School children have caught butterflies and pinned them onto their dresses. "Bands of Mercy" in our Sunday Schools would stop this cruelty.

"THAT'S YOU, JIM."

Have You Rheumatism?

You Can Be Cured. FREE

A Scientific Discovery.

It is now possible to be cured of any form of rheumatism without having your stomach turned upside down or being half choked to death, and every sufferer from rheumatism should welcome this marvellous discovery with open arms and give it an honest trial. The new remedy was discovered by John A. Smith, Milwaukee, Wis., who is generous enough to send it free to every sufferer who writes at once. It is a home treatment, and will not keep you from your work.

As you know if you've tried them, every so-called rheumatic remedy on the market to-day except this genuine cure, will cause you violent stomach pains, and some of them are so dangerous they will cause heart trouble. And the worst of it is they never cure. When a person has rheumatism the constitution is so run down that he should be very careful what he puts into his stomach.

It, therefore, gives me pleasure to present a remedy that will cure every form and variety of rheumatism. That remedy is

"GLORIA TONIC."

Before I decided to tell the world about the discovery of "Gloria Tonic" I had it tried on hospital patients, also on old and crippled persons, with perfect success. But some people never will believe anything until they know it from experience, so the best and quickest way is for you to write me that you want to be cured, and I will send you a package of "Gloria Tonic" free of cost. No matter what your form of rheumatism is—acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc., "Gloria Tonic" will surely cure you. Do not mind if other remedies have failed you, nor mind if doctors say you are incurable. Mind no one, but write me to-day, sure. "Gloria Tonic" will stop those aches, pains, and inflammations, and cure you so that life will again be worth living. This offer is not for curiosity seekers, but is made to rheumatics only. To them I will send a trial package of "Gloria Tonic," free.

Never before has a remedy been so highly endorsed as "Gloria Tonic." Among the eminent people who endorse it are: DR. G. QUINTERO, X, Medical Doctor and Surgeon of the University of Venezuela, whose endorsement of "Gloria Tonic" bears the official seal of the United States Consulate.

ple were 'Ethiopian Serenaders.' After they had sung some comic songs, one of them, a tall young man, stepped up to the door and held out his hat for a few pennies.

Mr. Carr, the owner of the store, took one of the Bibles from the case, and going to the door said, pleasantly, "See here, young man, I will give you a shilling and this book besides if you will read a few verses in it to your companions."

The young man laughed. "That's getting a shilling for an easy job," he said gayly. "Now, listen, boys, I'm going to give you a 'public reading.'"

Mr. Carr opened to the fiftieth chapter of St. Luke, and pointing to
