GIRL WANTED FOR FARMHOUSE. FAMILY of three. Box 54 Grandview.

How Johnny Loved His Pets
"Has my son been kind to dumb animals today?" asked a doting mother of her four-year-old boy.
"Yes, indeed, Mother; I let your canary out of the cage, and when my cat caught it I set Tower on her."

He Felt Cheap
"Mother said she thought you were extravagant, Tom, but I proved you were not."
"You darling! How did you do that?"
"Told her you were with me two hours last night and only kissed me once."

Little Nina went to church with her grandmother, and for the first time put two pennies in the contribution plate. Leaning over, she whispered very audibly: "That's all right, grandma. I paid for two."

It is frequently the lazy people who talk most the importance of taking it easy. Some people take it too easy, but of course we do not mean to be personal.

A book recently appeared, entitled "Lectures to Married Men." It did not sell, as there was no demand for it. A mean married man gave as a reason that the present supply was more than the market required.

Not Troubled That Way
A physiologist came upon a hard-working Irishman toiling, bare-headed, in the street.

"Don't you know," said the physiologist, "that to work in the hot sun without a hat is bad for your brain?"
"D'ye think," asked the Irishman, "that Oi'd be on this job if Oi had any brains?"

QUESTION DRAWER

This department of the Guide is open to all readers, and it is hoped that they will take advantage of it. All questions relating to the problems of the farmer of Western Canada will be answered in this department. Write questions on one side of the paper only, and send only one question on one sheet of paper. Join in making this department of the greatest value.

MUST HAVE NAMES
Questions sent in without the name of the sender attached will not be answered. The name will not be used if not desired, but it must be sent as a guarantee of good faith.

KILLING THISTLES
George A. Drysdale, of Arden, Man., sends the following in response to the request for an effective method of destroying Canadian thistles:—"Plow well, and about six inches deep in July, just when the thistles are coming into bloom. Having now turned them down and out of sight, do not let them appear above ground any more that season. Keep them down by thorough cultivation, either disk harrow or field scuffer, and if any thistles show up the next year it will be entirely contrary to my experience."

GRAIN GROWERS' GRAIN COMPANY
A. W., Sask.—Do the promoters of the Grain Growers' Grain Company own fifty per cent. of the shares of that Company? I had that question put to me by a farmer, he had been told by some wheat buyer that they did. I was not in a position to say whether they did or not. I did not think so. I thought that no man could own more than six shares whether he was a president of the company or a private shareholder.

Ans.—No shareholder of the Grain Growers' Grain Company, whether he be president or any other officer, can hold more than four shares of $25.00 each. The only persons who can hold shares in the Grain Growers' Grain Company, are farmers, farmers' wives and sons, living

That Was Easy
"My dear," said a wife to her husband, "do you realize that you have broken a promise you made me?"
"Have I?" said the absent-minded husband. "Well, don't worry about that, dear. I'll fix that all right; I'll make you another one."

It Might Have Been
Miss Maude Adams was driving along an English country road last summer with the curate of the village church, who was a man of very small stature. A party of American tourists passing the couple recognized the actress.

"Ah," said the curate to his companion, "that is the penalty of fame."
"What was that?" asked the actress.
"Those people recognized you as Maude Adams," replied the curate.
"Are you sure?" answered Miss Adams.
"Are you certain they didn't recognize 'The Little Minister'?"

Had Passed That Point
Pat: "I hear yer wufe is sick, Mike?"
Mike: "She is that."
Pat: "Is it dangerous she is?"
Mike: "Not at all! She's too weak to be dangerous any more!"

No Trouble at All
The new maid had been on this side of the water but a very short time, and a most amusing thing happened when she answered the bell for the first caller at the house where she was employed.

"Can your mistress be seen?" the visitor asked.
"Can she be seen?" snickered Kathleen.
"Shure, and Oi think she can! She's six feet high and haf as wide!"

on their farms. No person or clique can ever control the company.

RE VETERAN SCRIP
Enquirer, Tilson, Sask.—Can you put me in communication with any of the veterans holding scrip? Is it lawful for a veteran to sell his right? Has any holder of the scrip the privilege of making his choice of land? Are the duties of land available by scrip, the same as homestead duties? If a person could live on a homestead six months of the year, for three consecutive years, would the duties be completed?

Ans.—We cannot put you in touch with any veteran holding scrip as practically all of it is in the hands of speculators. All holders of scrip have the privilege of choosing their location on any homestead land. The duties on scrip land are the same as homestead duties. If a man performs his homestead duties for six months of the year on scrip land, he can also hold a homestead and take a pre-emption, by living the other six months on it. It is possible for a person holding scrip and homestead to secure a full section of land.

SHIPPING RING
In THE GUIDE, February 9, a subscriber inquired about a shipping ring. If he means for shipping grain, this is the way we did it. We hired a good man to go around and see the grain in the farmers' granary and grade it there. Then he got a car and he notified the farmers with certain grade and they filled the car. The man that did the grading weighed the wheat at the car, and gave each man a ticket for his amount that was in the car. If a car should leak, the amount is deducted off the farmer from the amount he puts in. If the inquirer would like a few more pointers, that he is not sure on, he could write to me personally.
