

An Act to continue four several Acts therein mentioned.

An Act for the increase of the Revenue in this Island.

An Act for appropriating certain Monies therein mentioned, for the service of the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

The Chief Justice then, on behalf of the said Commissioners, delivered the following Speech to both Houses:

Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council;

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

We are commanded by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, in releasing you from further attendance in General Assembly, to express his pleasure, that you have brought to a satisfactory conclusion, the business for which he felt it his duty to call you again together.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

His Excellency further commands us to thank you for the supplies, and to assure you, that they shall be faithfully applied to the purposes for which they are intended.

And then the following Commission for proroguing the General Assembly was also publicly read:

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

By His Excellency Sir ARETAS WILLIAM YOUNG, Knight, Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Majesty's Island Prince Edward, and its Dependencies, Chancellor, Vice Admiral and Ordinary of the same, &c. &c. &c.

A. W. YOUNG,
Lt. Governor.

To the Honourables Edward James Jarvis, Chief Justice, Ambrose Lane and Thomas Heath Haviland, Assistant Justices of the Supreme Court, Greeting:

WHEREAS for certain unavoidable and urgent business, concerning the state, safety and well being of the said Island Prince Edward, I the said Lieutenant Governor lately ordained and summoned the General Assembly of the said Island to be begun and holden at Charlotte Town in the said Island, on Wednesday the Twenty-ninth day of April last past, for the despatch of business; which said General Assembly was accordingly begun and holden at the place and time aforesaid: And whereas, for certain urgent causes and considerations me hereunto specially moving, I have thought fit that the said General Assembly, begun and holden as aforesaid, should be prorogued on Wednesday the Sixth day of this instant May, until Wednesday the First day of July next ensuing—Wherefore know ye, that confiding in your loyalty, prudence and circumspection, I have assigned you Commissioners, giving unto you, or any two of you, by the tenor of these presents, full power, liberty and authority, in my name and on behalf of His Majesty, on the said Sixth day of May instant, to prorogue the said General Assembly, begun and holden as aforesaid, until Wednesday the First day of July now next ensuing; and therefore I command you, or any two of you, in my name, and on behalf of His Majesty, on the said Sixth day of May instant, that you prorogue the said General Assembly, begun and holden as aforesaid, until Wednesday the First day of July now next ensuing, by virtue of and agreeably to the tenor of these presents.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these Letters to be made patent, and the Great Seal of the said Island thereunto affixed, this Fifth day of May, in the Fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, and in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. P. COLLINS,

Colonial Secretary.

After which the Chief Justice said—

Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

It is His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor's will and pleasure, that this General Assembly be prorogued until Wednesday the First day of July next; and this General Assembly is accordingly prorogued until Wednesday the First day of July next.

End of the Second Session.
