IRISH MEMBER

CALLED "MURDER"

The commons of Saturday. Of discussion there was almost none.

Mr. Roch Lanctot, the Liberal member for Laprairie-Napierville, attacked the Government's war policy as mad and ruinous, urged that the time had come to stop recruiting in Canada and announced that the would stand by a motion to reduce the war vote to $100,000,000 if such were introduced. Mr. Lanctot said he knew he would find few supportations and Chicago.
