Christmas, 1922

To the Members of Grace Church:

Pleasant news has reached me of the success of the Annual Bazaar and also of your liberality to the northern fire sufferers. "Be not weary in well doing." Christmas and New Years always bring mingling sadness and joy. The celebration of the first coming the Royal Babe, King David's greater Son, even because of its ancient date gives us an ever increasing joyous thrill. God in Christ Jesus has come to dwell amongst us. The mighty ruler of the universe comes in the only way that could reveal His great saving plan. Before His coming the human race had failed again and again. Though it involved a trail of His precious blood, yet His cross becomes a fountain of saving blood. It is a message of a terrible price paid, yet, through this saving Cross has he stretched out His powerful hands to help and to save. He does save. Praise His holy name. Millions of rejoicing Christians bear their grateful testimony. Any one will be ill advised to refuse His call. Let us on this eve of 1923 pause and listen to Him as He speaks of that place "Where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched." Out of hours of prayer and hours of study and meditation, I bid you, from far off Florida, obey Him and be saved. Men may say what they like. Jesus Christ came to tell us there is a hell of everlasting torment, and a Heaven of everlasting bliss. From out of the word of God and after forty years of honest study I warn one and all, avoid the awful doom, and seek with all your heart to attain eternal bliss. Dwell throughout eternity with the best and blest spirits of the universe. Avoid as you would ten thousand plagues things that will condemn you to pass eternal gloom with the vilest criminals the world shall ever know. Believe me true Christians are not to be so contaminated. God is good and a rewarder of the faithful. Don't make the hideous mistake of thinking that God is so good natured that all will be saved. It cannot be done. You cannot save a man that cuts off his own head. Meantime it is for all who are listening to Him that was born on Christmas Day to cast off sloth and selfishness and spread abroad the Kingdom of His saving grace. With best prayers and wishes for a Merry Christmas and Prosperous 1923.

Yours faithfully
H. J. LEAKE.

Orange Lodge Elect Officers

A very enjoyable evening was spent on Friday, December 8th by the Waterdown L. O. L., when the officers were elected and installed for the coming year by County Master A. Pealle, County Secretary T. Dove and Bro. F. Burt of Hamilton. The following officers were elected. J. Rutledge, W. M.; W. C. Drummond, D. M.; Wm. A. Drummond, Chaplin; J. F. Griffin, Rec. Sec. Walker Drummond, Secretary; R. C. Griffin, Treasurer; J. W. Griffin, D. of C.; A. Lovejoy; 1st L.; H. Baker. 2nd L. Com.—H. Gallin, Geo. Rutledge, Geo. Briggs, W. Hill and E. Young. Auditors, J. W. Griffin and Wm. A. Drummond. After the election refreshments were served and an enjoyable time was spent with the visiting brethren.

W. A. A. A.

At a well attended meeting of the W. A. A. A. a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the managers of the senior and junior baseball teams, Mr. Torrance and Mr. Lovejoy. As it has been years since Waterdown has had a championship or near championship, a vote of thanks through the columns of the Review would enlighten the public of the valuable assistance these two gentlemen have been to the W. A. A. A. Not once did either of them ever make note of their time or expense. They were always giving up their week end vacations to be with the boys. Men like these should not be forgotten, as the foundation of any community is built on just such unselfish calibre of its citizens.
