

THE CASKET.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

New Church.

SEALED TENDERS

For the enlargement of the R. C. Church, by the erection of a New Building in addition thereto, at Loxrey, will be received by the subscriber

Until March 1st, 1895.

He does not bind himself to accept the lowest, or any tender. Plans and Specification can be seen on application to THOMAS KENNA, Reserve, or to D. M. MACGREGOR, P. P. Bridgeport, C. B., Jan. 2, 1895.

A VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE!

THAT VALUABLE HOUSE and Lot of land, owned by Michael Leblond, sits on the most central portion of Main Street, Antigonish. The lot has a frontage on the Main Street of 40 feet, and runs back to the water, containing one-quarter of an acre. The house was thoroughly and well finished for water tanks, and its location is convenient to the second and third stories. The house is well as being a nice and pleasant place to reside, the site possesses a commercial value from its very central location in the business district of the town. The place will be sold at a low price, and a bargain can be expected. Reason for selling - have left Antigonish.

For terms, etc., apply to THOMAS BROTHERS, Main Street, Antigonish. N. LEBETTEL, North Sydney, C. B., Oct. 18, 1894.

ACCIDENT. - Yesterday H. W. Brine's team, driven by his young son Percy, ran away coming down Church Street. At the corner of Main and Sydney streets the horse struck Samuel Cameron, who was standing on the street. Mr. Cameron was knocked down and the horse and sleigh passed over him. He was picked up and conveyed to his home in a sleigh. He complained of considerable pain in the chest, but it is believed his injuries are not serious.

Mr. LAURENCE, oculist, optician, intends visiting Antigonish regularly from this date, due notice of which will be given in THE CASKET. Mr. Laurence has fitted within the last five years with his most perfect aids to vision. This should be a guarantee that where no actual disease of the eye exists, perfect vision can be guaranteed. The public will please take notice that the Dr. Laurence's spectacles are never sold to peddlars or does Mr. Laurence or any one else employ eye-pole. -adv.

CURLING. - Curlers in Antigonish played the curlers of New Glasgow last Friday three rinks at New Glasgow with very different results from those recorded in the recent game at Antigonish, as shown in score below:

NEW GLASGOW. Turney, 10; Jno. Brough, 10; J. Cunningham, 10; G. Cunningham, 10; W. McKenzie, 10; G. Manning, 10; F. Grant, skip, 10; W. H. S. Miller, 10; Jno. Eraser, 10; W. H. S. Miller, skip, 10. ANTONIGONISH. Turner, 10; Jno. Brough, 10; J. Cunningham, 10; G. Cunningham, 10; W. McKenzie, 10; G. Manning, 10; F. Grant, skip, 10; W. H. S. Miller, 10; Jno. Eraser, 10; W. H. S. Miller, skip, 10.

THE PUPILS of St. Bernard's Convent observed the anniversary of His Lordship's birth on Friday afternoon last. The convent hall was a scene of beauty, and so full have we seen decorations so chaste and at the same time so grand. The bright, pure and intelligent faces of the pupils, as they stood at the entrance of His Lordship to the Hall, made a most charming picture for the background of forms and potted plants. The exercises opened with a song of welcome, which was followed by a song to offer their best wishes to His Lordship. Their prayers and hopes being set in verse were sung by the little ones, representing different virtues. The address of the school was then read by one of the young ladies, and His Lordship replied in his usual fatherly way, giving the young ladies sound advice and much food for thought.

HYMNICAL. - St. Joseph's Church was the scene of a happy event on Tuesday last week when Mr. Donald A. Walker of West Lake, Antigonish, and Miss Christy D. McFarlane of St. W. Margarets were united in matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. McDougall, assisted by Rev. F. Chisholm, whose housekeeper the bride has been for the past seven or eight years. Mr. Alex. Walker, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and Miss Kate A. McFarlane, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. On invitation, a few dozen assembled at the residence of Father Chisholm where a sumptuous dinner was partaken of, and a most enjoyable hour spent. Among the many presents received by the bride was a twenty dollar gold piece, and one and all extended the high regard in which she was held. Shortly after the marriage, the young couple accompanied by some thirteen sleighs, repaired to their future home at West Lake where W. Wednesday night was pleasantly spent, their being nothing to mar the enjoyment of the occasion. - Con.

SUPPOSED DEATH FROM EXPOSURE. - John Bailey, a young man from Merland, Antigonish Co., with his father, was in Tracadie on last Thursday stopping. Towards evening father and son were seen driving towards their home, the young man being then under the influence of liquor. The son wanted to enter some houses on the way to obtain more liquor, and, notwithstanding the efforts of his father to restrain him, he jumped out of the sleigh and ran into the woods with the intention, it is supposed, of taking a short cut to some houses. Inquiries at the houses failed to find him, as also search that night in the woods. Next day a very heavy snow storm prevailed, and search was abandoned during its continuance. The only trace of him since is his cap, which was found in the woods. It is thought he lay down and died from exposure. Considerable complaint is being made lately at the unrestrained sale of liquor in this neighborhood, and at the failure of the Clerk of License of the county to visit the locality within the last two years, although frequently requested to do so. - Con.

[The foregoing is published by request, as it is right that the facts should be known. In extension of the conduct of the Inspector of License, it is only fair to recall that two years ago a majority in the Municipal Council, with no other object that we can conceive than the prevention of the enforcement of the Liquor License Law, cut down his salary to a figure which would make it impossible for any officer to enforce the law except at great personal loss. - Ed. CASKET.]

Obituary. Capt. Wm. Graham died at his residence at Bayfield Monday of this week. He was in his sixty-fifth year. Capt. Graham was well known in Eastern Nova Scotia, where his active life brought him in contact with a large number of people. His remains were interred at Antigonish yesterday, and were followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends. He was a son of the late Capt. David Graham of Antigonish Harbor. He leaves a wife, four sons and three daughters to mourn his loss.

The Modern Invalid Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, truly beneficial in effect, and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician; if constituted he need the gentle family laxative, Syrup of Figs.

TENDERS BRIDGE

are invited for the construction of the following Municipality of Antigonish. St. Joseph's Bridge. Five small spans of plank and stringers, resting upon 4 trestle bents, and two abutments of crib-work, with embanked approaches.

The Government of Nova Scotia, under the provisions of the Act respecting Bridges, invite tenders for the construction of this bridge. Plans and specifications can be seen, and forms of tender and all information can be obtained at the office of the Provincial Engineer, in Halifax, and also at the office of Hon. G. F. McDonald, M. E. C., Antigonish, and at the residence of Simon Fraser, St. Joseph's. Tenders, to be enclosed "Tender," specifying name of bridge, and addressed to the undersigned, on the 21st day of February, 1895. Parties may tender upon the plan to be seen at the Provincial Engineer's office, or they may tender upon their own plan, according to their practice or to their usual method of construction, but the plan submitted by them will be subject to the approval of the Provincial Engineer. No tender will be received unless submitted according to specifications, and on the printed form to be had at the Provincial Engineer's office, and at the above named places. The Government do not bind themselves to accept the lowest, or any tender. Security for the due performance of the contract will be required. CHARLES E. CHURCH, Commissioner of Public Works and Mines. Public Works and Mines Office, Halifax, January 8, 1895.
