TO ADVERTISERS.

We highly appreciate the advertising patronage bestowed upon The Citizen and are anxious to do all we can to serve the best interests of our patrons...

WHAT THE LOCAL PAPER DOES

The late Hon. David Davis once said: "Each year every local paper gives from $100 to $5,000 in the form of the benefit of the community in which it is located..."

THE FACTS SAY—NO.

The Montreal Gazette says Canada railway men, presumably railway magnates, regard the recent strike on the government railway of France as an argument against government ownership...

MEN SCARE.

The railway constructors in the West want $0.000 men and can't find them. Things might be worse, as the London Advertiser says...

A FARGE.

Hoist the flags, rain or shine, in honor of His Majesty's Canadian ship Niobe! This is a great day for Halifax and for Canada—Morning Chronicle.

But according to the doctrine of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, His Majesty can have nothing to do with the ship till the Canadian parliament votes him permission.

THE TORREY CAMPAIGN. (St. John Standard, 19th.) The executive of the Torrey campaign met at the Y. M. C. A. last night...

MELBOURNE, Oct. 21—Returns are all in in the New South Wales state elections. It is admitted the Labor party has carried the state...

The Labor caucus at once elected a speaker and chairman of committees. Both officers will have to vote in case of an inevitable tie.

THE COAL DUTIES. In view of the proposed reciprocity negotiations between Canada and the United States, the coal operators of Nova Scotia met in Halifax yesterday and discussed the duties.

Mr. Corey Johnson, of Oxford, shot a fine mouse at Folly Lake Wednesday.

How to Get Bigger and What to Get Busy About

The above are natural questions to ask the "B. B. B." Club, and fortunately they are not very hard to answer, at least, in part. Aside from the natural increase in population, the best way to insure a bigger town is to have something worth while in the town to entice those who are looking for a new place to pitch their tents...

Bounties Expire.

This is the last year of the Canadian iron and steel bounties. They expire December 31st. The withdrawal of them will occasion a considerable falling off in the income of the various plants.

Coming of the Ducks.

With these shortening, lowering October days comes the call to the sportsman to his him away to the frost-tinged woods or the drab marsh, there to flush the wild partridge, or from rush aside await the coming of the early-feeding wild duck.

LABORITES WIN IN NEW SOUTH WALES.

New Premier MacGowan was Formerly a Boilermaker—Premier Made Among the Slain.

Get Ready For Autumn. Forget the summer girl with the golden curls of the summer man with that lovely tan.

USEFUL INVENTIONS. The following Canadian patents have been recently secured through the agency of Messrs. MARION & MARION, Patent Attorneys, Montreal, Canada, and Washington, D. C.

GENIUS OF A BLIND RECTOR. The career of Rev. H. J. R. Marston, the blind rector of Belgrave Chapel, which is being demolished, provides a striking example of a man's triumph over adversity.

REMOVAL. Rev. Walter Cameron, who for the last fifteen months has been the energetic pastor of the Congregational churches worshipping at Selma, Coel and South Maitland, commenced his new pastorate at Milton, Queens, last Sunday.

A Policeman's Record. An English policeman kept a diary throughout his 27 years of service. His record shows that he walked up one street 10,447 times, gave first aid in 121 cases, was called in at 124 quarrels between man and wife, got 15 black eyes, 13 kicks and six bites.

BRANDS STORY AS IMAGINARY. Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper laughs at reports in Evening Paper. Was it the comet or Sheldon that upset the Montreal newspapers? asked Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper yesterday afternoon.

WILL RETIRE. It is said Mr. J. R. Cowans will retire from the management of the Springhill mines. Whether this means a settlement or not remains to be seen.

SNARE GUARDS CHILD. The following story, taken from the Arabian Nights, has the flavor of a Brahmin village. A child was born to a Brahmin village six months ago, and since the very date of birth a serpent has been a constant attendant on the babe.

SEYMOUR'S SCALPS. In the annual field day of the Dalhousie A. C. Seymour McKenzie captured the 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes all in good time. Harry Archibald was second in his heat, took Earl Day, a former Trurian, took third place in the broad jump and second in the mile walk.

WORKING OUT. The boys are working out between the Brookside and Onslow courses, but will put in their road training with three ten mile jogs on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of next week, running from the Esplanade to Stewart's bridge and return.

FOOTBALL. This and last week was a good one for Truro footballists. Not here, for no one seems to have enough life to get out and play the game, but in Halifax and Wolfville.

NEEDS STORY AS IMAGINARY. Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper laughs at reports in Evening Paper. Was it the comet or Sheldon that upset the Montreal newspapers? asked Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper yesterday afternoon.
