Resumption of the Trial—Evidence Unsatisfactory to the Prisoner.

San Francisco, Oct. 21.—Although Attorney Durey was not well enough to appear in court this morning the trial of Theodore Duratin was resumed after a week's intermission. The first witness was Charles T. Lenahen, who was recalled to tell about the time when a ring similar to the one worn by Blanch Lamont. In a letter written to Attorney Dickinson last spring, Lenahen asid he called at Oppenheimer's to pawn a ring similar to the one worn by Blanch Lamont. In a letter written to Attorney Dickinson last spring, Lenahen asid he called on Oppenheimer just before noon. At the same hour Durrant is said to have visited the place, but witness said to-day that he calied at Oppenheimer's between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon. On cross-exa nimation witness of showing the jury how he looked when he called at the store. Afterwards he put on Durrant's hat and overcoat Lenahen bears no regemblance to Durrant and even when arrayed in the prisoner's contest the similarity between the two was so little as to be hardity perceptible. Robert N. Lynch, Rev. Geo. Gibson's private secretary, was called to the stand for the purpose of showing the jury how he looked when he called at the store. Afterwards he put on Durrant's hat and overcoat Lenahen bears no regemblance to Durrant and even when arrayed in the prisoner's contest the similarity between the two was so little as to be hardity perceptible. Robert N. Lynch, Rev. Geo. Gibson's private secretary, was called to the stand for the purpose of showing that he's gardenesse ports of Shimonessel, Kotkalchi. To show that in the Lake's story public April 37d. The defense desired to impeach that with a store the court of the fact that Mrs. Losak had seen Durrant and Mrs. Lenke testimony by showing that the she had not, and furthermore to show that in his soal to have Durrant to show that in his soal to have Durrant to show that in his soal to have Durrant to show that in his soal to have Durrant convicted Rev. He Breaks Up a Family—Cleveland Wanted to Homor the Snob.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Samuel F, Colt, has instituted a suit for divorce against her husband, Col. Colt, of the Colt's revolver family. It is stated that Col, Colt will enter a counter suit. The ground on which Mrs. Colt seeks legal separation, as alleged in the petition, is that her husband has been guilty of adultery, but no co-respondent is mentioned. The attorneys claim it is folly for her to attempt to prove that the trouble commenced in August, as they say Mr. Van Alen had been denied the Colt louse long before that, at Mrs. Colt's results. Society has talked considerably bout Mrs. Colt gand Mr. Van Alen and is said letters have been found which.

in repelling the enemy because they were unable to cross the river. A detachment of troops consisting of 200 infantry and 20 cavalrymen, commanded by Caph Martinez Sanchez, had a skirmish with an insurgent band commanded by Calderan at the farm of Dos Amigos, in the Province of Santa Clara. The insurgents lost six killed and several wounded. The troops' loss is not stated.
