Strictly Fresh Eggs

Are not always so easy to get. We made an arrangement with a large chicken owner, by which we get "strictly fresh" eggs every other day. You can depend on these; they are not only perfectly good, but are of fine flavor.

We have satisfied very particular people all through the summer and feel sure we can satisfy you also.

Thompson became quite noisy when P. C. Groves said he about the money, that officer locked the money seeker Officer Darr had arrested Thompson, so when the former came on duty last night he soon explained where the money had gone. P. C. Darr, when he searched Thompson, had found as much as 75 cents scattered through the pockets of the man who had gazed too long on the fluid that produces a rail-fence gait. The officer had collected the coin and, putting it in Thompson's pocketbook, had concealed the purse in the hip pocket of the man of many drinks. There the money was located by P. C.

This morning Thompson pleaded no guilty, and the case was adjourned till 3 p. m. to get the evidence of P. C
