TENDERS! Building Lots.

Tenders for Court House Grounds and Buildings thereon, in portions thereof, and for buildings separately.

The County Council in April Term, 1891, passed the following resolution:

Whereas it is believed that the present site of the said buildings is unsuited for the same and can be sold for a large sum of money, therefore resolved that an advertisement be inserted in the County papers inviting tenders for the whole of the said lands with the buildings, and for portions of the same with or without the buildings, and for buildings separately.

Tenders for the whole of the above property, or any portion thereof, with or without buildings, or for buildings separately, as per above resolution, will be received at this office until November 30th, 1891, exclusive, envelopes to be marked "Tenders for County Grounds."

The Council reserve the right to accept or reject any tender or all the tenders.

By Order, L. DEY, CHIPMAN, County Clerk.

Dr Alice Blackadder, of New York is in Wolfville spending a few weeks' vacation at the home of her parents. Dr Blackadder is one of our talented young ladies who has won success in the medical profession, and has a good practice in New York.

Mr C. F. A. Patterson, of Horton Landing, has recently procured an excellent bred Jersey bull. He is sired from the Hartz stock at Baddeck, C. B., the service of which costs $100. Anyone wishing the services of this fine animal should communicate with Mr Patterson.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Alexander P. Blackburn will preach at both services in the Baptist church next Sunday. Mr Blackburn is pastor of the First Baptist church in Lowell, Mass., where he has a flourishing charge; and is spending his vacation in Nova Scotia.

Ice Cream Freezers, Lawn Mowers and other reasonable house-hold hardware at Brown's.

Rev. Howard Bars and lady left on Wednesday en route for India. After spending a few weeks in New York, the home of Mrs Bars, they will sail about Sept. 5th for India. Mr Bars' many friends and acquaintances here wish him a safe voyage and abundant success in his new field of labor.

Picnics have been the order of the day during the past week and gay parties have gone from or through our town nearly every day to picnic at some of the beautiful spots in this vicinity so well adapted to those pleasant gatherings. The weather has been well suited for these occasions and pleasant times have been had.

Hon. Edward Anderson and wife were in Canada last week visiting Mrs J. Walton, a cousin of Mrs Anderson. They drove around and saw some of the beautiful scenery in this county, such as from the "Look Off," Kentville and other places. Mr Anderson is a member of the Common Council of Philadelphia.

Everybody should use the "Peas" Water Filter at this season. For sale at Sleep's. Call and see them.

The new Boston boat the State of India sailed from Shelan's wharf, Halifax, Sunday night with 400 American tourists who came into the province in search of recreation and cool weather. The Carrol, of the same line, left for Boston Saturday afternoon with 250 passengers. The $5 rate of passage offered by this line has wonderfully increased the travel between the two cities.

Berwick Gleanings.

Rev. E. E. Daley and Miss Lavenia Eaton have gone to Moncton to attend the annual meeting of the Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces, which commences Saturday, the 22d inst.

Mr Ira Wallace has been, during the last week, delivering "Conversations on the Bible" at Welford, Weston, Somerset and Morristown. The book is well received.

During the next two months two of Berwick's fairest gems are to be called for--one for a foreign land, the other for a cultured town on the Intercolonial R. R.

Charlie Norwood has been for several weeks laid up from work with rheumatism. His father-in-law, Alex. Knowlton, Esq., of Wilmot, is visiting him.

Pastor Jenner has been engaged to continue his labors with the Cambridge church.

The rum seller at the station is again skipping justice.

The Kingston ramseller, Feltus, rather than pay his fine of $100 and costs, was lodged in Kentville jail, and after being there about thirty days, decided to pay over to the sheriff the full amount of fine and costs and was set at liberty.

A Pleasant Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Gasperau Division and Band of Hope took place at Starr's Point, Tuesday, Aug. 18th.

The start was made at 9 o'clock, teams having formed in line on Bridge St., between Edward Davidson's store and Hunter's Mill, and after a delightful drive of a few hours through Wolfville and Cornwallis Valley the Point was reached. Dinner came next on the programme, and after a tempting collation had been disposed of, croquet and quoits were in favor of many, while others strolled about on the beach, where a splendid view is got of the surrounding country.

At 5 o'clock the start was made for home after a day of pleasure long to be remembered, and which will be a credit to the charming valley of Gasperau. Some of those who were in line are as follows:--

Leading the procession was Mr John Gertrigge's family, in a double team driven by his son James. This team carrying the banner of the Division. Mr J. D. Martin and I. N. Caldwell and families come next, also those of Geo. and Watson Miner, Andrew Caldwell, Edward Kinne, Albert Miner, J. Duncanson, all in double teams. Those who followed in single teams were: Rev. M. P. Freeman and daughter Bessie, Robert Westcott and wife, Robt. Davidson and wife, Adelbert Goldwell and lady, Emory Goldwell and lady, Everett Goldwell and lady, Nathan Goldwell and wife, John Vaughan and wife, of Wolfville, Alston Caldwell and lady, Russel A. Kinne and wife in his fine turnout, Frank Kenne and sister, of Brockton, Mass., Douglas Benjamin, wife and son, James Williams and Miss Duncan, of Boston, Frank Gertrigge and lady, Gertrigge and friend, Peter Gertrigge and lady, Mr Frank Westcott, of the Adams House, Boston, and Miss Cleveland, of Wolfville. Fred H. Pratt, of Boston, and lady, Truman Bishop, of Kentville and Miss Etta Benjamin, Ralph Forsyth and sisters, Fred Reid and Mrs M. Cleveland, Mrs Hunter and Miss Reid, Burpee Cleveland with the Union Jack.

Barring a shower on the return home, and Alston and Nathan Caldwell's accidents the day was enjoyed by all, thanks to Mr John L. Gertrigge and Rev. M. P. Freeman.
