THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., DEC. 31, 1897.

Local and Provincial.

Aberdeen Birk was open the first time for the season on Wednesday evening. There was a good attendance of skaters. The "Week of Prayer" meetings will be held in the different churches in town as usual next week, beginning with the Methodist church on Monday evening. The members of Wolfville Division held a Christmas Tree on Monday evening. The presents were distributed at the close of the regular session of the society.

A big discount on all of Caldwell's stock for cash only.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) church next Sabbath morning, Jan. 2, and in Chalmers' church, Grand Trunk, on the same day at 3 p. m.

The Acadian begs to acknowledge receipt of pretty and useful calendars from the "Commercial Union" and "Sun" Insurance companies, through their representatives in Wolfville, E. S. Crawley, Esq.

New Year Presents selling at half price at the Wolfville Bookstore.

A Mothers' Meeting will be held in the Temperance Hall on Thursday, Jan. 6th, at 3:30 p. m. Subject to be discussed, Purity. A cordial invitation is extended to all the women of the town to be present at that occasion.

The roads having been worn smooth a small snow-fall on Sunday night was sufficient to make fairly good sleighing, which has been fully taken advantage of.

The "Columbia Calendar" issued by the Pope Mfg. Co., makers of the famous Columbia bicycle, is to hand for the year 1898. This firm knows how to get out a good article in calendars as well as in bicycles, and both are deservedly popular. Messrs. Starr, Son & Franklin will handle these celebrated wheels next season.

Don't miss the big Clearance Sale of Fancy Goods at the Wolfville Bookstore.

Since the 22nd of Nov. last five convicts have been had against McFadden, of Canby, for violation of the Scott Act. After one night in jail he paid three fines and costs amounting to $216.55. On the 22nd inst., in default of payment for the fourth conviction, he was committed again to jail. The two last convictions and costs amount to about $145.00. Sawler, his shoemaker, was fined for two offences of selling liquor on his premises, and committed to jail along with McFadden, in default of payment of fines. McFadden's house-keeper has also been fined for similar offence and has left for parts unknown. Canning has had a dry Xmas, the first in many years.

WANTED.—At once, one pant and vest maker. Apply 163, A. McNeill.

The recital given at Port Williams on Wednesday evening by the Misses Masters was a most enjoyable affair. Temperance Hall was filled at the appointed hour by a most appreciative audience and the general verdict was that the entertainment was a most creditable one. Besides the recitations of the Misses Masters, which were most artistically given, both in vocal and instrumental, Miss Grace Paterson gave two excellent readings which were encored. Miss Beal gave a brilliant performance on the piano; Messrs. Cobb and Hutchinson gave a number of selections on the banjo and guitar; Mr. Brown sang a solo, and a quartette consisting of Misses Hattie and Laura Masters, Miss Seabourne and Mr. Brown gave a selection and received encore.
