A Chinaman Catches a Ticket Agent.

Silver coin is at a discount in California just now, and it is customary to demand gold when the amount is over $10, which explains the following from the San Francisco Bulletin:
"Too muchee smartee," was what the moon-eyed child of the Orient said to the ticket seller at the wharf when gold was demanded for three tickets to Stockton, at $3.50 each, making $10.50.
"Too muchee smartee: vou no

"Too, nuchee smartee: vou no

"Yes, John, I must have gold for Come, out!"

"How muchee one ticket?"
"Three dollars and a half."
"Allee light; me takee one," and he paid his three dollars and a half in "Three dollars and a half."

"Allee light; me takee one," and he paid his three dollars and a half in silver; then bought another one and paid three dollars and a half in silver, and bought a third in the same way, having paid out ten dollars and a half in silver without showing gold. With a leok of triumph the mild-eyed son of Confucius gathered in his last ticket and said:

"Too muchee smartee."

TELLEGIEVE AND THE LOUIS ENDIAL MEDICAL CO.,

Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and make ing the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the Best Preparation for its intended purposes."

This is not dissimilar from sea sickness; it requires long experience in a ring to overcome the nausea consequent upon going round and or on the most difficult things for a circus rider to overcome is this sickness. Clowns and ringmasters suffer greatly from it, at first, from merely seeing the horses go round and round; but even after years of experience, a ringmaster (whose principal business in the ring is to keep the horses up to a certain gait and not merely to give cues to the clown), if a horse balks or gets behind time, and he is obliged to keep close upon him, is very likely it of suffer from a pronounced fit of sickness at the stomach after he leaves the ring.

Coolness and courage saved H.

The Cold Facts.

A grocer doing business on Michigan Grand avenue was yesterday asked fo trust a colored man one 'ay for a quart of strawberries.

"Can't do it—von'd never one," clad with sheet iron or tin. These regarded to transfer and or the suggestions worthy to be heeded by architects and owners of buildings. And they will have almost the force of law in octock in de mawning." the colored man continued earnestly.

"Perhaps you might, but I don't believe it. If you have no money now how will you have any then?"

"Don't ax me, boss—I'll have de money sush. I'ze jest perspiring to death for de want of strawberries."

"Does any one owe you?" asked

"Then how do you expect to get any money?"
"Oh, de pay'll be all right."
"I guess not. You'll have to try some one else."
"Boss, you hez pinned me right down to cold facts," said the customer. "I want strawberties, an' dey hez got to come, an', derefore, let me, say' dat I wasn't goin' out to steal chickens to-night an' sell 'em to get money."
"Ah! you wasn't?"
"No, sah, 'cause I dun pulled 'em in last night, an' dey'll be sold to a butcher dis evening. Dat's de cold fect, mister, an' now wrap up dem strawberries, an' donn't abuse my confidence."—Detroit Free Press.
