DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, ETC.

VOL. 4. HILLSBORO, ALBERT COUNTY

The Weekly Observer.

HILLSBORO, N. B., Dec. 27, 1888.

Christmas Bells.

I heard the bells on Christmas day
 Their old familiar carols play,
 And wild and sweet,
 The words repeat,
 Of peace on earth, good will to men!
 And thought how, as the day had come,
 The belfries of all Christendom
 Had rolled along,
 The unbroken song,
 Of peace on earth, good will to men!
 Till ringing, mingling in its way,
 The world revolved from night to day,
 A voice, a chime,
 A chant sublime,
 Of peace on earth, good will to men!
 But in despair I bowed my head—
 "There is no peace on earth," I said;
 "For hate is strong,
 And mocks the song,
 Of peace on earth, good will to men!"
 Then pealed the bells more loud and deep,
 "God is not dead, nor doth he sleep!
 The wrong shall fall,
 Who for the wrong,
 With peace on earth, good will to men!"

"You see to the room, it is late," said she, she began scold about it, in one ear a little other ear, under a window, until I took to me back much to Je-go at, who went on up-stair the door or behind him.
 Mrs. Jones could hear a grohaulting and moving up above, though it best just then to keep tongue-tied. Mr. Jones soon looking very red in the face, I started, as he passed on out door
 "I must go up and see who been about," said Mrs. Jones.
 She found the bedstead waystands, towel racks arranged on one side the other three sid-entirely bare. S
