Lord Dufferin, and the Marquis of Lorne on his arrival from Canada, will be created Knights of the Garter. The Duke of Argyle has but recently been honoured with that The rumour to the effect that Lord Lorne will be created a Peer for services in Canada is not generally credited. The foot and mouth disease is spreading in England, and it is feared that the agitation in

It is to be hoped that the misrepresentations o bilious partisans regarding Canadian cattle and the efforts of the Government to prevent he introduction of disease will not injure us Barry, of Bradford, has been definitely appointed public hangman. Barry, who was in some years in the county constabulary, and afterwards in the borough police force, is now employed by Mr. Wilson, bootmaker, of Bradford. He is not a man of very tall, stalwart frame, and does not appear very strong. He is described as a sober, industrious man of quiet manner. When he went from Brad-ford to apply for the office in London, he took a silk rope which he had specially plaited for him, and which was fitted with a special loop male by a local firm of troumongers. With this rope he said he could cause death quicker than Marwood did.

A correspondent of the London Standard York could be reduced to four and a half days by the construction of a deep water canal from Dublin to Galway or the Shannon. An ordinary canal, which might be utilized for the purpose, already exists between the latter and the Irish canital. The cost of eepening and widening it would be compara tively small, and no engineering difficulties re presented by the char cter of the country The journey round the south coast of Ireland would, he says, thus be avoided, and a great saving of expense and time effected. The Times' London special says :- The Queen will provide a large dowry for her grand-daughter, Princess Victoria of Hesse, who is about to marry Prince Louis of Battenburg, who has no for tune. by experts and the real cause of their death hanged by Marwood, says the New York Truth, the mother of the youngest—who was really a boy—kneeled on the ground in all the rain in front of the gaol, and cailed down curses on all concerned in the execution. Marwood was then in excellent health Almost immediately he took to drink. This weakened his vitality. At a subsequent execution in England his cunning, that had hitherto been proverbial, deserted him, and he made a wretched bungle of an execution. A few days ago he contracted oneumonia, which to ralty from he did not have strength enough, and now he is dead. The champion drunkard of the world is a woman named Jane Johnson, of England, now 84 years of age. She has been convicted of drunkenness in Leeds and other towns in Yorkshire over 200 times. Twelve months ago she joined the ranks of the Salvation Army, and caused no small stir by the thrilling stories she told of her remarkable career. American may perhaps be imagined; it can not be described. It is generally admitted that the registration system now in vogue, considered as a branch of jurisprudence, is extremely ered as a branch of jurisprulence, is extremely abstruse, while in practice it is found to be contradictory. "Lodgers" fall under one set of laws, "occupiers" under another, and there is a vast deal of confusion about both. In the case of "occupiers" the ordinary borough franchise is household suffrage pure and simple; in other words, a labourer who occupies a cottage for which he was the suffrage pure and simple; in other words, a labourer who occupies an Unholy Compact Between Man and Wife. BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 15 .- Frederick Burns, indicted for bigamy, stood up before Judge Hammond in the Court of Sessions this morn-ing waiting sentence. He is 33 years old. The bill of the grand jury charged him with having married Margaret Coil several years ago at Hamilton, Canada, and while she was still living to have married Agnes Hartley a Buffalo during the present year, to all of which he had pleaded guilty last week. When the judge asked him what he committed the offence for, he stated he married the first wife in good faith and intended to always live with her, but the conduct of his mother in-law towards him became unbearable and he could no longer remain at Hamilton. He went to Niagara Falls and tried to get his wife to come and life with him. She would not do so, and he abandoned her to her mother's society. He came to Buffalo and soon after his wife came on. She wanted to know if he would object to have her marry another man in Canada whom she loved: He said he would offer no interference. He asked whether she would interfere with him in a marriage to a woman here and she said "No." Prisoner admitted he did not fully realize the enormity of the offence or he Improvidence of Parisian Workmen. Many of the Parisian workmen live only from hand to mouth, Living, it is true, is not very expensive, but wages are dispro-portionately cheap. The average ordinary day labourer, in all kinds of employment, receives from 62½ cents to $1 per day. Brigandage seems to be on the increase in Turkey, and this tact is generally taken to be significant of the decay and disintegration that the Empire is undergoing. A few weeks ago an Italian stranger was captured by high-

Russian Nihilists Aggressive. The Russian Nihilists are as aggressive as ever. A great sensation has been caused, both in St. Petersburg and in Moscow, by the suicide of one of the Imperial chamber-lains. The real motive for the deed was not at first published, the Russian journals attri-admitted at Smyrna not long ago.

One day the Czarina, in going into her study, was much surprised to see the chamberlain in question stanning in a conspicuous attitude before her writing table. She questioned him, and he, taken by surprise, drew from his pocket a Nihilist proclamation, which he was about to place on the table Her Majesty did not lose her presence of mind, but ordered him to be searched; when upon him were found a number of similar documents. She commanded him to quit her presence at once, and the unhappy man went self. Every precaution was taken by the authorities to keep the true cause of the sui-cide secret, and, so far as the Russian papers were concerned, with success. Sir Charles Tupper's Exertious on Behalf of a Young Canadian, When in Paris, recently, Sir Charles Tupper was occupied with a curious case touch ing upon a point of international law, and resenting several features of interest. The vears ago a young Frenchman named Louis Graindarge emigrated to Canada, and soon after his arrival, viz., in 1872, he was drawn for service in the French army. He remained in Canada, however, and became a naturalized Canadian in 1878. A short time back his father died, bequeathing a legacy of 20,000 francs to each of his children, and Graindarge at once returned home to claim his share of the bequest. By some means or other the authorities were informed of his reappearance on the scene, and the result was GRAINDARGE SPEEDILY FOUND HIMSELF IN PRISON, with the prospect before him of two years' imprisonment and five years' service in Al-giers, as a penalty for his failure to respond to the call to service ten years before. Some of his triends at once took action on his be-half, and laid the case before the Dominion Government. Sir Charles Tupp r when in Paris, with the co-operation of the English embassy, made some representations on the subject to the French Ministry, but it was The French Government, however, showed strong desire to meet the High Commissioner in a friendly spirit, and the result has been that Graindarge has just regained his liberty.

The incident is a pleasing indication of the cordial relations which exist between French and the Dominion Governments.
