BEAVER FLOUR
Both
Ways

Make up a batch of Bread and Rolls with it. Then bake a Pie and Cake.

Notice the fine, even texture—the absence of holes—the delicate, nutlike flavor, of the Bread. Then consider the lightness and flakiness of the Pastry. You'll never go back to the coarse, almost tasteless western wheat flours, after once enjoying the flavor of the good things made with Beaver Flour. Order a sack today.

Clemenceau Is Back At Congress

Paris, Feb. 28—Premier Clemenceau yesterday attended the meeting of the great powers, the first time he met his conferees since the attempt against his life a little more than a week ago. The Premier remained for half an hour discussing various great questions in which France is highly interested. He told his colleagues he would return next week to resume the presidency of the conference.

The Premier looked well and vigorous and gave no sign of the ordeal he had undergone. David Lloyd-George the British Premier, has made arrangements so that he will arrive in Paris March 8, when it is expected that all the commissions will have reported, that Premier Clemenceau will again be president and that action will be begun on the preliminary peace treaty.

M. Clemenceau paid a visit to President Poincaré at the Elysee Palace. Later he returned to the war ministry, where he received numerous visitors, among them Marshal Foch.

Stern Reminders Of Rheumatism

Cold or Wet Weather May Start the Pains but the Trouble is in the Blood

Every rheumatic sufferer would realize that rheumatism is rooted in the blood and can only be cured by a treatment that will cleanse the blood of the rheumatic poisons. The old-time belief that rheumatism was caused by cold, damp weather is now exploded. Such weather conditions may start the aches and pains, but is not the real cause. Liniments and outward applications may give temporary relief, but cannot cure the source in the blood. The sufferer from rheumatism who experiments outward applications is only wasting valuable time and good money in depending upon such treatment, the trouble still remains, and it is all the time becoming more firmly rooted—harder to cure when the proper treatment is applied. Treat this disease through the blood and you will soon be rid of the pains and tortures. As a cure for rheumatism Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are unequalled. They act directly on the impure, weak blood; they purify and strengthen it, and so root out the cause of rheumatism. Mr. D. Lewis, postmaster of Escuminac, N.B., says:

"I was attacked with rheumatism which settled in my elbow, shoulder and knee joints, and at times caused me great suffering. The trouble was particularly severe last spring and I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking the pills for some time the rheumatic pains and stiffness in the joints disappeared and I have not since had any return of the trouble."

If you are suffering from rheumatism, or any trouble due to poor blood and weak nerves, you will find a cure in a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can procure these Pills through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Cannot Visit Soldiers' Graves

Ottawa, Feb. 28—The militia department desires to inform all relatives and others interested that the imperial Government is not in a position to grant passes to visit soldiers' graves in France.

In some instances there is no transportation whatever to places where the graves are located. Where transportation exists, it is entirely taken up for military purposes. There is also little or no accommodation.

Cable advices have been received from overseas to the effect that a number of people not in possession of the above information have arrived in England with a view of visiting France to see the graves of relatives.

Find White Girls In An Opium Den

Toronto, Feb. 28—There is an underworld in Toronto, exactly like the kind you read about in dime novels, Yankee magazines and other high-class literature. This morning police court habitués were permitted to look behind the veil. Magistrate Kingsford was so impressed by what he saw beyond the veil that he increased a fine of $100 and costs or four months, imposed upon Kong Hong, for keeping an opium joint at 175 Richmond street west, to $200 and costs.

It was 2.30 a.m. when Plainclothesmen Waterhouse and McMahon broke into the premises. The scene within was a revelation, although not unknown to older police officers. The place was dimly lit by two twinkling oil lamps, the air heavy with a sickening smell of opium. Oriental draperies decorated the walls, and on a small oak stand an oil lamp burned its dull flame going in and out as an opium pipe drew fresh life from the flame. Chinamen in various stages of insensibility lolled about in ungraceful positions, sucking slowly, dreamily at their stinking pipes, their eyes opening and shutting like the eyes of a fat porker finishing his swill.

And in the centre of this sordid scene lay two white girls—very white girls—their faces as bloodless as dead flesh, their eyes black-rimmed and heavy in stupefying slumber. Who they were, or what their story the police didn't say.

"The graveness of the charge against Kong Hong is that white women have been going to his place. The seductive mysteries of the Orient still fascinate the chaste women of the west," said Mr. Corley. It was when Magistrate Kingsford learned this that he changed the fine to $200.
