The Dominion Parliament prorogued on Monday at noon.

Rev. T. E. Cullen, of Minneapolis, Minn., is here on a brief visit to his mother and other friends.

Rev. Father McQuillan, of Halifax, sang the high Mass in the Cathedral on Sunday last.

Poor shooting by Rowe lost the Kolapore cup for Canada at Bixley on the 17th. It was won by the Mother country.

Among the distinguished visitors to the Tercentenary celebration at Quebec are Earl Roberts and the Duke of Norfolk.

At Greenwich, Conn., on the 16th, the White Mountain Express was wrecked. One woman was killed and ten persons were injured.

Admiral Rojstvensky, who commanded the Russian fleet in the disastrous battle of the Sea of Japan died at Redmanheim, Germany on Monday.

Three inexperienced men, while canoeing on the Montreal River Out, were drowned on Monday. A fourth occupant of the frail craft saved himself.

All the outbuildings on the farm of James Murray, Envyale, Lot 65, together with their contents, were destroyed by fire on Wednesday last. No insurance.

Rev. Father Darveau, Sulpician, of Montreal, who had preached the clerical retreat last week, preached a beautiful sermon at the high Mass in the Cathedral Sunday last.

By the explosion of the boiler connected with the donkey engine of the New England back Reginald, at Tackett Wedge, N. S., on Thursday last, two men were killed and two badly maimed.

A great rain fell on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, has been of incalculable benefit to the crops in this Province. These rains have also put a stop to the disastrous fires raging here and in other Provinces.

Referring to the Supplementary estimates with the railways just before the election—a correspondent at Ottawa says that "everyone here says that the Government have overdone the business."

William R. Hearst, of New York, replying to Gompers' appeal to throw the Independence League's influence in Bryan's favor, replies, refusing to do so, stating that the League cannot support a cadent party.

Walter D. Martin, of Malden, Mass., while roving in front of his summer cottage at Pine Island, Lake Umbagog, N. H., was drowned within sight of his wife. When about fifty feet from the shore the boat capsized.

The session of the Dominion Parliament closed on Monday broke the record for length. 236 days elapsed from the opening of the House in November. The previous longest session was in 1905, 227 days. Seven months and 23 days is a pretty long siege.

John Wyley, an employee of the Telephone company was instantly killed at Stellarton, N. S. last Wednesday evening by contact with a live wire. Wyley was erecting a cable between New Glasgow and Stellarton, and while on the pole on Main Street met his death.

Halifax had a severe electric storm Wednesday, and the telephone company there had several instruments put out of commission. At the head of the North West Arm a large tree was struck and set on fire by a lightning bolt. This illuminated the sky for a few minutes, and it appeared as though there was a conflagration.

Tom Longboat, while practicing in Ireland for the Marathon race at the London Olympic games, ran into a country cart and was injured. It was at first thought he would not be able to enter the contest; but later advices indicate that the injury was not serious and that he may yet compete in the race.

Una Roy, aged 17, William Muir, aged 16, and the sister Margaret, aged 12, were selling in a boat on Bedford Basin, Halifax, on Thursday last. The weather was fine, but suddenly a meteoric thunder and lightning storm set in and capsized the boat. Una Roy and William Muir were drowned, but Margaret Muir was rescued, after being half an hour in the water.

At the Supreme Court here on Thursday last, in the suit of Hughes vs. J. J. Hughes, the Court ordered that the trial of the question of law should take place next November, and that in the meantime the trial of the issue of fact should stand over on payment of costs to the court. Mr. Hughes has thus accepted trial at the present term.

After a fierce fight, in which clubs were freely used, the Mounted Police arrested near Yorkton, Sas., on the 17th, twelve members of the Donkhorst band who have been touring the West. Six men and six women were sentenced to six months imprisonment. This is the first time the Donkhorst band has been broken up.

All Monday afternoon the city of Quebec resounded with the thunder of heavy guns, as the warships saluted the forts. The battleships of three nations participated in the real opening of the Tercentenary celebration, and courtesies were exchanged between the visiting officers of the British French and American squadrons.

On the 13th $35,000 were voted by the Dominion Parliament. 25,000 of this amount, it is said, will be spent on this island in search of coal. It is stated that borings to the depth of 2,500 feet will be made. Should a wonder but some of the money will be spent boring for something else besides coal.

A sad accident occurred Monday at Souris, where a young son of Angus McCormick lost both of his feet. It appears the little fellow was sent out of the hayfield for fear of being hurt, but later roamed into the thick hay, and before the mowing machine could be stopped, the knife had nearly severed both legs at the ankle.

One of the worst fires in the history of Fort William Ont. broke out yesterday afternoon in King's department store and raged furiously for hours defying the efforts of the fire brigades. The fire broke out in the heart of the business section, and struck a most serious blow. The Bell Central, King Company's big general store and warehouse and several other buildings on Cummins Street were burned. The building of Kirkup and Wilkins was also along with several residences.

A Portland Maine, despatch of the 17th says: "Temporarily squelched by the showers of two days ago, almost all the forest fires, which have been devastating the Maine timber lands for the past weeks, broke out again afresh yesterday and with several new ones added. The State, from corner to corner, is literally fire-swept. For the first time since the fire started, several farm-houses have been destroyed and one sawmill burned, while there is a half-confirmed report that seven men who went into the woods near North Berwick two days ago have been trapped by the flames and have perished."
