LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

Saturday June 3rd, the birth day of King George V. has been proclaimed a legal holiday through out the Dominion.

The thermometer registered 94 in Chicago several days last week. There were several deaths and scores of prostrations.

Souris Tea—The Parishioners of St. Mary's Parish, Souris, have chosen Tuesday, July 11, as the date of their Annual Tea.

The Italian aviator Cirri, while making an aeroplane flight near Voghevar, Italy on Saturday fell 650 feet and was killed. His wife and children saw him fall.

A Jersey cow belonging to Mr. George McDonald got on the railway track at Vernon on Friday. When the train backed the cow was run over and had a leg broken.

The Newfoundland fishing schooner Gertrude, arrived at North Sydney and reported the loss of two of her crew, David and Edward Stanley, off Quero Bank on May 14th.

An airman by the name of Swandt swooped suddenly down on the 24th. on the spectators who had invaded the aviation course at Angusburg. One person is dead as a result, and two are fatally injured.

William Smallbones, of St. John a fireman on tug boat Lord Kitchener, lost his life by drowning in the Bay of Fundy between Partridge Island and Shag Rocks. The tug boat was engaged in assisting dredging operations.

Hotel keepers in London are panicking over the failure of their business. They tremble at their ordinary rates in the hope of reaping a rich harvest, but now find a scarcity of guests and are rating prices in a desire to find patrons.

A heavy thunder and lightning storm passed over Truro, Bathurst and Campbellton, N. B., and resulted in one fatality. Miss McLaughlin, the nineteen year old daughter of Frank McLaughlin, was struck by lightning and killed.

Telegraphic advices of the 29 to Havana report that one hundred of the passengers and crew of the steamer Taboga have been saved. The Taboga struck a rock off Punt Mala Tuesday last week and sank shortly after. 20 persons are not accounted for. The captain swam ashore by the aid of a life preserver.

Two men perished in a fire that destroyed the Chutes, San Francisco's amusement resort, early Saturday. Occupants of an adjoining lodging house which caught fire rushed from their beds to find that escape was cut off. Before firemen arrived Bella Alvino and John Feist jumped from the second story window and both were dangerously injured.

A double header coal train plunged through a burning trestle two miles East of Boston, North Carolina killing engineers Green and Lindsay and firemen Dolley and Lewis, conductor Howell is unaccounted for. Fifteen loaded coal cars crashed through the fire eaten woodwork into Watkin's creek, piling upon the two engines and burying the victims in mass of wreckage.

It was decided a few days ago at a meeting of the strikers at Springhill that the long standing strike be called off. The settlement was suggested to Premier Murray by a committee of the strikers, and Premier Murray used his good offices with the executive of the Coal Company. The settlement terms are that the cutters go back on a 10 p. c. reduction on the pay that they received at the time the strike began in August, 1909.

One of the worst fires which Quebec has had for many years past, took place Saturday afternoon and resulted in the destruction of property to the amount of nearly a quarter of a million dollars. The fire took place at St. Roch and wiped out two big factories in addition to a number of dwellings. At one time it looked as if the fire would assume the proportions of a great conflagration, but the good work of the firemen, handicapped as they were, prevented what might have been a terrible disaster.

McDONALD—At Cherry Hill, Head Hillsboro, on the 17th of May, instant, Marceline, widow of the late Alexander McDonald, and second eldest daughter of the late James McDonald, Allsary, in the 80th year of her age. Deceased was well known and highly esteemed in the community in which she lived, for her nobility of character and many christian virtues. She was blind for several years prior to her death, but was wonderfully smart until two or three years ago, when she sustained a severe injury by a fall, while moving about the homestead. Her wonderful vitality enabled her to recover fairly well from the effects of this accident. Her son, Mr. John J. McDonald and two daughters lived with her. But both daughters predeceased her by several years, so that of her family her son alone was left. He was the most devoted of sons to his mother, and there was no sacrifice he was not willing to undergo for her sake. The funeral took place to the parish church at St. Andrew's on Friday, 19th, when a very large concourse of people followed her mortal remains to their last resting place. The pall bearers were D. J. McDonald, T. D. Coffin, H. D. Coffin, A. Coffin, A. Grant and J. J. McDonald. The Requiem services in the Church and the last offices at the grave were performed by Rev. A. P. McLellan, P. P. She is survived by one son, two sisters and three brothers. May her soul rest in peace (Other papers please copy)
