After nearly eight months of sleeping sickness, Mrs. Maria Lynott, wife of P. G. Lynott, of Dunmore, Pa., died July 28. Her condition became critical in December, and since that time she has slowly wasted away.

It seems to me sometimes that it would be a good thing for one's mind to take up some new subject every year, and to treat the intellect in the same way as land that is sown with a rotation of crops.—Ste. Beuve.

H. F. Margaleuth, who farms four miles southeast of Brandon, Man., commenced cutting marquis wheat on July 24. This crop was seeded on April 10, and although growing on a hillside will average about ten bushels per acre.

Mr. R. M. Coats, chief of the Federal Statistical Department, Ottawa, has been appointed to the Statistical Commission of the League of Nations, and leaves for Europe in September to participate in the meetings of that Commission.

Last Friday night three men were killed as the result of lightning striking a shed containing dynamite at Quebec. The three men, who were standing nearby, were instantly killed, one of them had his head completely torn off.

Because of the beneficial rains in the commonwealth during the past six weeks, crop prospects in all the rural districts are considered excellent. It is expected Australia will have an exportable wheat surplus this year. This is the information that comes from Melbourne under date of July 28th.

Three members of Roald Amundsen's Arctic expedition, who left the explorer's ship, Maud, with mail last fall while the vessel was off the northern Siberian coast, are missing and are believed to have lost their lives, according to Russian Government advice received by Amundsen at Nome. The names of the three men have not been learned.

Although the total catch of sea fish in Canada during the month of June was 22,104 cwts, less than in June, 1919; its total value was $576,518.00 greater. The monthly statement issued yesterday from the Fisheries Branch of the Marine Department, show that the total catch of sea fish in Canada during June of the present year was 833,916 cwts, as compared with 855,020 cwts. in June last year.

If a House of Commons were elected which accepted the Socialist program, long before that Parliament had time to assemble, countless millions of capital would have passed out of the land. In no age of the world could such a calamity be more easily produced, for never before could capital be so quickly and easily displaced, and in no other country do industry and employment more largely depend upon national credit.—Lecky.

Ottawa advices of July 30th, say: British immigration to Canada, so far this season, is about double of what is coming from the United States. Of an average influx of about 18,000 a month, twelve thousand are coming from the United Kingdom and six thousand from the States.

The newcomers from the Old Country are mostly English. Out of an arrival of twelve thousand five hundred in the last month tabulated over eight thousand were English, three thousand Scotch, less than a thousand Irish and 150 Welsh. The new immigration restrictions requiring careful selection are rejecting about a hundred a month, while about thirty or forty are deported for disqualifying conditions.

Mr. James McIsaac, M. P., left here yesterday morning to attend the Imperial Press Conference, which opens at Ottawa tomorrow.

Softness of smile indicates softness of character. An old proverb says: "A smiling boy is a bad servant." The horse-laugh indicates brutality.—Lavater.

In politics as in mechanics, theories are deceptive that do not take into account the varying nature of the materials with which the machines are constructed.—Joseph Le Maistre.

"We should feel sorry, but not sink under its oppression; the heart of a wise man should resemble a mirror, which reflects every object without being sullied by any.—Confucius.

If the house is to be pulled down and rebuilt till we have one that is perfect, and, moreover, that everyone will think such, we shall be constantly in brick and mortar as if we did delight in pulling down for its own sake.—Whateley.

The Montreal Star announces that the Rev. Father George F. Bradley, S. J., who has been stationed at St. Andrews, on the Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has been appointed to the faculty of Loyola College, Montreal, being appointed Minister and Prefect of Discipline. Dr. Bradley is a son of Mr. Francis Bradley, Kelly's Cross.

At 11 o'clock Mass on Sunday last, His Lordship Bishop O'Leary announced that Miss Mary A. Monaghan, of Charlottetown, had generously donated the recently purchased property adjoining the lands of St. Dunstan's University for the diocesan Order of the Sisters of St. Martha. He also said that the Sisters intended opening a novitiate there at the beginning of September.

The unveiling of St. Gaudens statue of Abraham Lincoln, near Westminster Abbey, July 28, proved an impressive ceremony. Mr. Lloyd George was present, and in his speech, accepting the monument on behalf of the British people, the Premier declared that Lincoln "belonged to all mankind." "This torn and bleeding earth is calling today for the help of the America of Abraham Lincoln's days," he concluded.

After a record-breaking run of six and a half days to Quebec, the C. P. O. S. liner "Minnesoda" docked here last Saturday morning with a passenger list of close on two thousand. It was her first trip through the Straits of Belle Isle this season, and this route, with the absence of fog, brought the big liner to port a day ahead of her time. During the voyage one of the storage passengers, Mrs. Fairhurst, gave birth to a child. The baby, a girl, was christened on board ship, Blanche Minnesoda Fairhurst.

Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of the Naval Service, has been advised that the new ships for the Canadian Navy will arrive from England at the end of September. They will consist of one oil-burning cruiser and two destroyers. Two submarines also in the Admiralty gift will be brought from Bermuda. Meanwhile, the Niobe, Rainbow, Grise and the two-Pacific coast submarines will be sold. The new ships will call for an establishment of 605 men, and with the exception of four seniors, the officers will all be Canadians.

Look! Read! Realize.

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor.

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!! We study the business! We know what suits a young man we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W H Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Overcoats, Made-to-Order-from... $30.00 to $48.00 Overcoats, Ready-to-Wear..... $15.00 to $36.00
