THE CROPS IN CANADA.—Tu reply to a cir-cular from Mr. Bryd.es, the different station-masters on the Grand Trunk line have sont in masters on the Grand Trunk line have sent in reports of the state of the crops in their neighborhood; "Of the whole the picture they present is not so flattering as we had expected to find, and particularly with respect to the great stable—wheat. From the Western Section of Upper Canada the accounts of the spring wheat are uniformly poor. I from only a few of the stations is there a good account of wheat. A large crop was expected a few weeksage, but the weekling, and continued dry weather have worked evil.—The reports of coarse grains are favorable from all pa ts. The reports of coarse grains are favorable from Lower Canada are nuch more favorable than those from Upper Canada. Something must be aligned to give them up, for the three following reasons:

Scond. Jetsam signifies throwing up; but the aschor and chain were not thrown of wheat. A large crop was expected a few weeksage, but the weevil, the midge, and continued dry weather have worked evil.—The reports of coarse grains are favorable from all pa ts. The reports from Lower (and a puse containing from the provincial favorable from the provinc from all pa ts. The reports from Lower Canala are much more favorable than those from Upper Canada. Something must be aftowed for the chronic farmer's grumbfe in Upper Canada; but making this allowance it his endeavor to seize him. is impossible to conceal that the wheat crop is not what we had all hoped and had been led to expect it would be.—Leader.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER. THE BODY SHOCKINGLY MANGLED.

A most mysterious murder appears to have been perpetrated in the neighborhood of the village of Campbell's Cross, in the township of Chinguacousy, in the county of Peel, on the night of the 6th inst. On the morning of last Thursday, the body of a man named William Derrick was dis-covered lying in a ditch on a Mr. Haggard's farm near that place. The deceased pre-sented a frightful appearance. He was found with his jaw broken, his skull fractured in two places, and finger-marks upon his neck, as if from strangulation. There were appearances of a severe struggle on the top of the bank near which the body was found, and two pools of blood marked the spot. The watch of the deceased was found near him on the ground, with the chain broken into three pieces and his cleared at d m a high state of cultivation. Application broken into three pieces, and his pocket-book was also found, but empty, while it appeared that he had been seen to have a two dollar bill. The Coroner's jury apent two days in the investigation, without discovering any evidence to implicate spent two days in the investigation, without discovering any evidence to implicate any one, except that as one Robert Campbell was the last person scen with the decased, they thought the end of justice would be served by putting Campbell on his trial for nurder. They gave their vardict yesterday, and Campbell was ledged in gaol, and will be tried at the present Assizes. The prisoner is most respectably connected, and has hitherto borne an irreproachable character, and as anight be expected, his arrest upon so grave a charge has caused a great sensation in his own neighborhood. The whole affair is so far mysterious and unaccount.

Case-Verdict of $5,000 Damages. MILWAUKES, Oct. 7.—The case of Margur-LGuniber against Orlando Etlaworth for a boarch of promise, after occupying ten days in the Circuit Court, was given to the jury today. Both parties are residents of the town of baske, in this county. Ellaworth was a captain in the 24th Regiment, but, from infernation produced on the trial, having had a resident of diarrhos, procured his discource, attack of diarrhos, procured his discource, and a resident of the county for the last twenty rears. The plaintiff, who is about 26 years of age, is a German by birth, and all though presenting an emeciated and debauched countenance possessed many evidences of original beauty. She was a servant in the house of Ellaworth's wife, which took placedeath of the proper time, marry ber. She for a time successfully respect to the plaintiff, assuring her that he crubbed to his desires. The evidence shows that in the short space of eight years four aboutions were produced. this whence the body derives its succor.

This Medicine being very pleasant to the tuste, must become very popular with those invalids who have been sickened with assucous Castor Oil, Aloes, Rhubarb, &c.

Wherever thus been moduced it has met with great success, and is likely to superaced all the mediciness as good and pleasant physic.
