THE BETTING CRAZE.

Betting is becoming more prevalent in this country. The success of the Canadian team seems to have turned the heads of many who once plumed themselves upon their high notions of morality and honor, and the almost certain prospect of their favorite winning the race has led them to bet freely, and in a way that once would have been as far from them as picking a lady's pocket. Old men bet; young men bet; professing Christians bet, and glory in their gains. Small stakes have grown into large ones. A man can hardly give an opinion upon anything, or allude to any chance, without being asked what he will bet? Opinions, to be worth anything in the estimation of some, must be supported by bank bills. "Put up or shut up" is the popular cry. Some men think they can gain respect for almost any opinion if they shake a huge bundle of bank notes in its support; and in that way they often seek to convince a poorer disputant that his judgment is in error. Men who win bets are encouraged to bet still further; and those who lose, keep on betting in the hope of regaining their own by some happy chance. The Toronto Telegram, in a brief reference to this pernicious practice, says:

"It is odd that, no matter how hard the times may be, people who are addicted to betting can always find money to bet with, however difficult it may be to find it for more legitimate purposes. Those who bet must take their chances, and, when they lose, must not look for sympathy. Betting is the most common species of gambling, and it is surprising how general it is becoming; and yet, as a matter of fact, you cannot take a man's money and give him no return for it without doing him an injustice. Of course the argument is that he bets of his own free will and knows very well that he is taking his chances, probably console himself when he loses that he will make his loss good out of somebody else on some other occasion. But there is not a single redeeming feature about betting, and there are very few men who win money by gambling who do not feel a pang of regret and a sense of having done an injustice when they put the loser's money in their pockets. Betting, is a bad habit, and should be discouraged, for it is becoming extremely common among old and young."

A Toronto paper having stated that the inquiries being discovered at Ottawa could not have been perpetrated in Toronto, as the light of public scrutiny would keep the jobbers from carrying on such nefarious work, the London Herald objects, and asks if no great jobs were practised in the Queen City? Among other crooked transactions the Northern Railway now is instanced. Our contemporaries have not gone to the root of the matter. It is not a question of city but one of party. If Ottawa has become notorious for jobbery it is because the present Administration has been fostering corrupt practices. If Toronto is free from great jobs, it is because Mr. Mowat's Government would not allow anything "crooked" to be done under its very nose. The Northern Railway reference is a most unfortunate one for the Conservative press, for it was a rascally mode of swindling a corporation to supply their party with funds for political purposes. A Reform Government at Ottawa, and a Conservative Government at Toronto, would quickly change the reputation of both cities for political morality.

Our Clinton contemporary was frothing last week on the matter of market prices, and used some very naughty language towards us. Our friend of the New Era is drawing upon his imagination for his facts, for the figures we attributed to the Expositor were just what appeared in that paper. Our contemporary, in its endeavor to prove THE SIGNAL wholly in error, uses angry words instead of honest facts. We were perfectly correct in our statement of the 5th inst. The New Era may surely object to be able to keep cool when the thermometer ranges so low.

Mr. F. W. Johnston has set a good example to intending candidates by inserting a card in THE SIGNAL, announcing himself in the field at this early date, but until we see who else will enter the lists, we do not care to give an opinion on the merits of prospective candidates. We can only express our regret that Mr. Garrow has withdrawn from the Revere-ship, an office which he filled with honor to himself, and with benefit to the town. Mr. Wm. Campbell is also out in a card for the position of First Deputy Reeve.

Some people ask why we do not write longer editorial articles. There are several reasons for our not doing so. In the first place, in this busy, bustling world, with newspapers so cheap and plentiful, few persons can find time to read through long columns of finely spun argument and abstruse questions. We aim to say as much as possible in a few words. We prefer to offer the nugget rather than beat it into gold leaf. We find, too, that people understand a few words better than they do many. Men who write or speak at length frequently do so to because it takes many words to justify their positions. Then again, we want to give a live and readable paper, with pithy, pointed comments on general affairs. When we were younger and callow, we wrote very long articles; but now we condense, and try to waste as few words as possible. Looking over some of our long winded contemporaries, we have often thought that they would be more readable if the writers of long leaders were struck with paralysis and couldn't find an amanuensis.

By resolution of the Town Council it was decided to keep on the market fees for the next two months, and make the matter of fees or no fees an issue at the municipal elections. The two months' fees of the market will be let by auction on Saturday next, but we wish every ratepayer to bear in mind that these two months will be no index of the receipts from market dues for the entire year. It is well known that December and January are the principal months of the year for traffic in grain, cordwood and similar produce, and we venture to say that fully one third of the fees on the market will be collected during these two months.

THE international boat race was completed on Saturday last, Laycock taking first place, with Ross, Homer and Warren Smith, second, third and fourth respectively. Contrary to general expectation, Trickett obtained no place in the race, and the chances are that, like Courtney he rowed his heart out in the contest with Hanlan. As the present indications point, Laycock is the better one of the Australian scullers, and the success which has crowned his efforts during his sojourn in England has been second only to that of Hanlan. At no distant day Laycock will probably have a tussle with Hanlan for the championship of the world.

The farmers of the township of Nelson, who have been in the habit of attending the Hamilton market for the disposal of their produce, have ceased doing so because tolls are collected on the road thereto, which eat up all the profits, and have adopted a plan that will set the Hamilton people thinking. They have appointed an agent in Toronto and made arrangements with a railroad to forward all their produce to him, where it will be disposed of, and returns made. This is only another instance of the injuries arising from restrictions on trade when tolls, market fees or any other barrier is erected against the free exchange or disposal of products, be they of the farm, forest, mine, workshop, or other means, some way of avoiding the same is devised, and a loss of trade, direct and indirect, is invariably the result.—New Era.

The New York Tribune is of opinion that "giving the Pacific Railway Syndicate a subsidy which represents a sum of $105,000,000, and includes $25,000,000 in cash, the Canadian Government is making a larger investment than the modest wealth of the Dominion or the utility of the undertaking would warrant."

In North Oxford there is a heavy grist of Candidates for Parliamentary honors. About a dozen are spoken of, and some half-dozen are out over their own signatures. Mr. G. R. Patullo, of the Woodstock Sentinel-Review, is to our mind the most eligible candidate on the list so far.

MR. WM. McDUGALL, ex-M.P. for Three Rivers, whose drunken antics in the House of Commons, on one occasion was the talk of the country, and who subsequently made way for Hon. Hector Langevin, has been rewarded with a judgeship.

THE Ontario Legislature will meet on Thursday, January 13th, 1881.

EVERY FAMILY, WITHOUT EXCEPTION, in City, Village, and Country, will find it highly useful to constantly read the American Agriculturist. It abounds in plain, practical, reliable information, most valuable for in-door as well as out-door work and comfort, and its 800 to 1,000 Original Engravings in every volume are both pleasing and instructive. In this respect it is preeminent and stands alone, and it should have a place in every household, no matter how many other journals are taken. Its illustrated department for youth and children contains much information as well as amusement. Its humbug exposures are invaluable to all classes. The cost is very low, only $1.50 from now to the end of 1881, or four copies for $5. Single numbers, 15 cents. One specimen, 6 cents. Take our advice and subscribe now for volume 40 (1881). Orange Judd Company, Publishers, 245 Broadway, New York.

Brussels.
BANK.—A branch of the Ontario Bank has been established in Brussels. Mr. John Leckie is the manager.

About 2 o'clock a. m. on Monday last, a fire broke out in the north-east corner of Turnberry and Mill streets, owned by E. Levens, and occupied by John Johnston, as a bakery, grocery and provision store. On account of the unseasonable hour and the insufficiency of the fire alarm, considerable time elapsed before the engine could be brought into full play. The flames so quickly enveloped the building that some of the inmates escaped with their lives only, by jumping from the upper window. The buildings are a total loss. The fire is supposed to have originated in an unoccupied house on the north side of the main building, which Mr. Levens was about to use as a harness shop. Mr. Levens's loss on building will be about $2,000, insured for $1,000. Mr. Johnston's loss $1,000, insured for $700. The loss will be heavily felt by Mr. Johnston, as he is a young man who had just entered into business in the place. The cause of the fire is at present unknown.

Holmesville.

TESTIMONIAL.—On Friday night last, the members of Miss Deborah Holmes Bible Class met in the basement of the Methodist church and proceeded thence to the residence of their respected teacher, as a surprise party. A most enjoyable evening was spent, indeed, the principal event being the presentation to her of a "Silver Butter Cooler." The address was read by Miss Maggie Cole, and testimonial presented by Mr. Geo. Rumball. The following is a copy of the address:—

To Miss D. A. HOLMES.—Dear Teacher.—We, the members of your Sabbath-school class, desire to avail ourselves of this opportunity of giving expression to our high appreciation of the earnest efforts you have put forth on our behalf; and of tendering you our heartfelt thanks for the interest you have taken in our spiritual welfare, both in the school and out of it. You have at all times faithfully performed your duty, and what we have gathered from your general instruction will, we are sure, prove of lasting benefit to us all, and especially those who accept the Saviour, to whom you have pointed us as our Redeemer. Your kindly disposition towards us, your constant endeavors to impart the instruction we required, and your readiness to help and guide at all times, shall never be forgotten. We shall endeavor, in our after career, to prove that all these efforts on your part were properly appreciated, by following the example you have set before us. We ask you to accept the accompanying gift as a token of our appreciation of your services, and the esteem and regard in which we hold you. Our earnest prayer is that you may continue to labor with us, and that God may bless your efforts to the salvation of many souls, and when He who has given us each a work to do, shall appear, we, one and all, may appear with Him in glory.

EPH'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Chil. Service Gazette.—Sold only in Packets labelled "JAMES EPPS & CO. HOMOOPATHIC CHOCOLATE, LONDON, ENG."—Also makers of Epps's Chocolate Essence for afternoon use.
