Some of the small bones had broken.

Fergus agreed to remain. When Grace was on the point of leaving the room, he turned his head. 'You are going to the Rectory, you say?' he remarked.

'Yes.' 'Do you think you shall see Anice?' 'It is very probable,' confusedly.

'I merely thought I would ask you not to mention this affair to her,' said Derrick. The curate's face assumed an expression at that moment, which it was well that his friend did not see. A shadow of bewilderment and anxiety fell upon it and the colour faded away. 'You think-' faltered he.

'Well, I thought that perhaps it would shock or alarm her,' answered Derrick. She might fancy it to have been a more serious matter than it was. 'Very well. I think you are right,

DUNGANNON SHOW.

Annual Exhibition Under the Auspices of the Ashfield and Wawanosh Agricultural

The annual fall show under the auspi-ces of the Ashfield and Wawanosh Aggricultural Society, was held in the vil lage of Dungannon, on Friday last, and was fairly successful. The horses were particularly good, and among the exhibitors we noticed Messrs. Harvey Howell, Jas. Weatherhead, W. R. Robertson, S. Alton, W. Glen, A. Young, Sprong, Hugh Girvin, Thomas Anderson, R. Mutch and others. In thoroughbreds, Thos. Anderson, Chas. Girvin, sr., and J. H. Gardner, were the chief competi-tors. Grade cattle was an excellent showing, and animals appeared from the stockyards of Chas. Girvin, Hugh Rutherford, Huzh Girvin, Thos. Anderson, and others whose names will be found in the prize list. Chas. Girvin, sr., and R. Wilson, showed Cotswolds, while Leicesters were on the ground from the pens of J. O. Stewart, Colborne, and E. Gaunt, and W Glen, Wawanosh. Pigs were not numerous, but poultry was a good showing. The exhibit of grain was a fairly large one, and the quality was of a high standard of excellence. Roots was also a good average show, and vegetables did not appear to be injured to any appreciable extent by the summer's drought. Fruit was very light, and it was in this particular, as well as in the floral display that the exhibition was not up the average The table in the ladies' department was well filled, lrwin. and some of the work was of a high or-der. In carriages, T. & J. Story, of Goderich, and J. Brydges, of Dungan-non were the chief exhibitors. Dairy produce and home-made bread was of good quality, and your reporter was kindly invited to partake of some of the 1st prize articles. The number of visitors was large, and the greatest satis-ris, 2d Saml Alton. faction was manifested throughout. Our townsman, Mr. S. Seegmiller, was on the ground with a couple of excellent chilled plows, which were the centre of attraction to a goodly number of the sturdy agriculturists during the day. Our thanks are due to Messrs. W. McArthur,

. S. SEEGMILLER,

Farmers and Mechanics.

If you wish to avoid great danger and trouble, besides a no small bill of expense, at this season of the year, you should take prompt steps to keep disease from your household. The system should be cleansed, blood purified, stomach and bowels regulated, and prevent and some diseases arising from Spring and cure diseases arising from Spring malaria. We know of nothing that will so perfectly and surely do this as Electric Bitters, and at the trifling cost of fifty cents a bottle.—[Exch.—Sold by
