

Fun and Fancy.

A little girl went recently to visit her grandfather in the country. She is fond of milk, but firmly refused to drink any while there, without giving any reason.

"How many genders are there?" asked the schoolmaster. "Three, sir," promptly replied little blue eyes.

An Arkansas politician was approached by a man who said: "Col. please give me a nickel; I want to cross the river."

A gentleman who had taken the right of shooting over a moor in Hampshire at a high rent, bagged only three birds the first day.

Don't Learn a Trade—No, don't learn a trade, young man. You might soil your hands, with your shirt collar and soil your complexion sweating.

Simply miraculous is all I can say of the effect of Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure in my case. An elderly lady writes this from Antigonish, N. S.

Household Hints.

To clean a spice mill, grind a handful of raw rice through it.

To prevent the juice of pies soaking into the under crust, brush the crust with the white of a beaten egg.

To cure a bruise or sprain, bathe it in cold water, and then apply a decoction of wormwood and vinegar.

To take oil spots out of matting, etc., wet the spot with alcohol, rub it with hard soap, then wash well with cold water.

To renovate old black silk, sponge it with spirit of ammonia or alcohol, diluted with water, and press on the wrong side.

To rid a room of the disagreeable smell of fresh paint, let a pailful of water, in which a handful of hay has been placed, stand in the room over night.

To remove stains from cups or other articles of tableware or marbled oil-cloth, rub them with saleratus, either with the finger or a piece of linen.

To remove ink stains from mahogany apply carefully with a feather a mixture of a teaspoonful of water and a few drops of nitre, and rub quickly with a damp cloth.

To prevent the hair from falling out, use a mixture composed of two ounces of spirits of ammonia, two ounces each of glycerine and rose water, one half ounce of cantharides and enough alcohol to clarify.

To raise the pile of velvet take two pieces of wood and place them on a tuff and between them, bottom side up, put three very hot flat irons and lay over them a wet cloth; hold the velvet over the cloth with the wrong side down, and when thoroughly steamed brush the pile with a light whisk.

For some time it has been the custom of a number of the worshippers in St. James cathedral to remain sitting during the singing of the anthem.

As the frosts of winter vanish under the beneficent influence of the sun's rays, so does Bright's Disease, Dropsy, stone in the Kidneys and Bladder, and Inflammation of the Kidneys, leave the body upon the administration of Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure.

W. M. O'Beirne, editor of the Napanee Express, has been committed for trial for issuing a libellous flysheet during the election campaign, pointed at Mr. A. H. Roe, the successful candidate.

No household should be considered complete without a bottle of Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure in the closet.

Seeing is believing. Read the testimonials in the pamphlet on Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure, then buy a bottle and relieve yourself of all those distressing pains.

Perfect, Positive and Pleasant are the cures effected by Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure. Relief in all cases of Kidney Disease is obtained after a few doses.

An Old Resident Gone.

Many of our readers will learn with deep regret and some surprise, of the death of Mr. James Kerr of McKillop, which took place at his residence on Tuesday night last.

Mr. Kerr had been in delicate health for about two years, but was able to go about and attend to his ordinary avocations until about a week prior to his death.

The disease which carried him off suddenly at last was some affection of the heart. Mr. Kerr was the second son of the late Alex. Kerr, of Sterling-shire, Scotland.

For several years he filled the position of elder in the Egmontville Presbyterian Church under the ministry of Rev. Mr. Graham, but since the organization of Duff's Church, McKillop, he has been a leading member of that congregation.

He has occupied several important positions of honor and trust in his municipality, and at the time of his death he was president of the McKillop Mutual Fire Insurance Company, in which he took a most lively interest.

Governor Murray tells a laughable story of his experience in the Georgia march to the sea, which is worth repeating: "Speaking of the famous march thro' Georgia," said the Governor, "I shall never forget the amount of money it cost us to keep an old woman from crying herself to death."
