Master Artl ur Mason, of Brucefield,

We notice the familiar countenance of P. Layton, formerly market clerk, visit-ing old friends here. Pat looks well, and is a strong advocate of the Scott Act. A New Coat.—Our post office is improved by covering of point, by the artistic brokes of Herb. Hillier and Harry Dot ;h, of Goderich.

Mr. Herbison is meeting with fair patronage in his creamery undertaking. At a raising on Friday at Geo. Lavis' Huron Road, Wm. Crooks met with serious accident. A man threw a pike pole from the top of the building which atruck Mr. Crooks on his right thigh, making a tearful gash about six inches in length. Had it not been for Robert is no doubt it would have struck him on the head with fatal force. It is fortunate that the fatality was thus averted.

A. H. Ree, M.P.P. for Lennox, died but each will be known by a number. Only the names of the winners of the prizes will be made known.

The Montania Grant of the prizes will be attached to the point air and the prizes will be made known. Acheson, who saw the pole coming and who pulled Mr. Crooks to one side, there Dr. Williams sewed up the wound and Mr. Crooks is confined to bed and likely to be laid up for some time.
