Kidney Suffering

Backaches and tired feelings tell of weak kidney action. Prompt relief by using DR. A. W. CHASE'S KIDNEY AND LIVER PILLS. There is no treatment for kidney disease which will afford you relief so quickly as Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, and none which will so certainly cure the most complicated forms of this disease. There is a reason for this. Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills awaken the action of the liver and bowels as well as the kidneys and thereby effect a thorough cleansing and regulating of the excretory system. Mr. St. J. Argue, Kars, Carleton, Co. Ont., writes: "I have suffered a great deal with kidney troubles and pains in the small of the back and have tried a good many remedies without obtaining very much benefit. I wish to say, however, that I can heartily recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as a splendid medicine as they have proven of very great value to me." Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmansen, Bates & Co., Toronto. Refuse substitutes.

"A Delightful Pastime" is the verdict of those who have purchased a Columbia Zither. It is a very fine zither, graceful in shape, and in every way a charming musical instrument. It is finished in polished black ebony, the same as a fine piano. Makes a beautiful gift for holiday or birthday. In a few short evenings you can learn to play the Columbia Zither with facility and ease. The lower notes are tuned in groups of chords. The higher notes render the air while the chords produce the accompaniment. For sale by Arthur B. Walker, Sole Agent for Newfoundland and Maritime Provinces. One month's free lessons at the studio, 13 New Gower Street (Albion House). Note: Toy zithers and small autoharps cost less, but the Columbia Zither excels in size and durability, combines the tone qualities of the guitar and mandolin. Can only be obtained from Arthur B. Walker who imports direct from factory in U. S. A., and has handled them exclusively since 1899. Call and secure one now and get instructed for one month free of charge. Autoharps put in perfect tune for 10c. Folios, strings, etc., at New York prices. A few piano folios 50 per cent off.—advtd.may.31.

Editor Evening Telegram:
Dear Sir,—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to express my sincere thanks to Dr. J. J. Smith, of Bishop's Falls, for the most kind and generous manner in which I was treated by him in my recent accident at Bishop's Falls, also the Albert E. Reed Co., of Bishop's Falls, for the kind assistance and help they gave me in my recent accident at Bishop's Falls.

Thanking you for space, Mr. Editor, I am, yours respectfully,

Our New Queen Mary.

Our new Sovereign Queen Mary is called after her mother the Princess Mary, daughter of the Duke of Cambridge, the youngest son of George III's large family. The Princess was the most beloved and popular woman in her day, not only bright and handsome but with the most winning manners. Mary is a sacred beloved name amongst all Christian people, and is specially dear to the English Nation from its association with the Queen Consort of William III, who gave us liberty and Constitutional Government. In Macaulay's splendid History the praise he bestows on this noble Queen would seem to those who do not understand her splendid character to be exaggerated, but it is all literally true. One noble monument to her memory is the stately pile on the Thames, Greenwich Hospital. Charles II. commenced the building for a Royal Palace. Mary turned it into the great Sailors' Hospital. The new Queen Mary has all the fine attributes and attractions of Her mother. She is renowned for her unflinching tact and her courtesy, a most worthy helpmeet to her husband the new King in all his former vice-regal and now regal functions. She is not so artistic as her aunt, the Princess Louise, or as literary as Princess Beatrice. Wise, however, discreet and eminently practical she will make as ideal a Queen as she is and always has been distinguished as a devoted wife and mother. Newfoundlanders will remember her on her short visit to our shores when she won all their hearts. We will all wish her God-speed and a long and happy reign.
NEWFOUNDLANDER.

A Sanitary Man Complains.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—Permit me space in your valuable paper to make a few remarks on a matter that I feel the public should know something about. It is this: A few weeks ago the Star R. R. & B. Committee gave a dinner. I got leave from the Supervisor, Mr. James Dwyer, of the Sanitary Department, to attend. Thinking the matter all right, never dreaming that my wage would be lessened by the reason of my attendance at the dinner, I was very much surprised at the following pay day to receive my money less the time that I was at the dinner. Having spent 30 years in the sanitary service in this city with a record for faithful service. At of which the general public well know, it seems very hard to have such a thing done on me.

Instead of deducting the paltry sum as done, I ought to be given greater encouragement in my old age. Believing as I do that I did my duty well, it shows poorly for the management to treat me like this. I ought in my years to be retired with full pay, and this would only be a just recognition of my past services. It is poor economy to treat the worker in this manner. I don't blame the Municipal Council because I believe that they as a body are too humane to authorize such a paltry system of economy.

In the sanitary service there are other men who have spent 31 years in the work similar to mine. When they are sick their wages are stopped, even when they get a certificate from a doctor.

I believe this matter should be given some attention by the proper authorities. There is nothing humane about a system that treats a worker of this particular class in this mean fashion.

I feel sure that the general public, the taxpayers, will not grudge the paltry sum they may be saved by such methods of deduction of wages from the old men of the staff.

Went Through Boer War.

Last night the Telegram referred to the arrival of Mr. Jos. Walsh in the city after an absence of 25 years. Mr. Walsh is an old time West End and was born in Brennan's Lane, near Brennan's Street. When Mr. Walsh left here he took up the sea as an occupation, and after landing in London, England, shipped before the mast in a large sailing vessel for Australia, and for many years followed up the sea sailing to ports in Australia, India, China, Japan, Chile, Brazil and other countries, and in fact was all over the world. His relatives here for a long while thought him dead, as they had not heard from him for years. At the outbreak of the Boer War he was in East London, Natal, and when the call was made for local troops he volunteered in the Kaffrarian Mounted Rifles and saw a good deal of active service. He was a member of "E" squadron of the regiment, which was at first commanded by Col. Price, and at Wepener he and his comrades had 17 days hot work repelling the Boers while fighting in the trenches. His regiment also fought with the Royal Irish and Welsh Fusiliers at Stormberg when the columns were decimated by the destructive fire of the Boers. Walsh was wounded in the face and arm by shrapnel and had to go into hospital for a period, but when his wounds healed he again rejoined the Rifles and saw the fight out to a finish. He engaged in several of the other important actions in the Orange Free State and had many escapes from capture by the enemy while on scout duty or from being killed or wounded by the Boers. At the end of the war, when the Rifles were disbanded, he worked for a while on the railway near East London and later resumed his roving life. He met one Newfoundland in the Bluff in New Zealand, an old man who was engaged at the fisheries, but who would not give his name and who related very interesting stories of St. John's. Walsh also for a while worked at a tunnel being run through the Andes by a railway corporation, and after leaving this decided to come home. He now resides with his brother and sister on New Gower Street. With the apathy and carelessness of the sailor, Walsh did not enquire or worry himself about the rewards that were given by the British Government to the men who volunteered and saw active service. He, however, is entitled to such and we recommend his case to His Excellency the Governor. Walsh is of a modest and retiring disposition and to get the few facts from him which we outline above our reporter had to use all his persuasive powers.
