Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, March 14. The Coal Conference resumed its sessions in the Foreign Office today. The period of general discussion has obviously ended, and unless the disputants are in a position to give definite replies to Premier Asquith's proposals, as a basis for the continuation of negotiations, compulsory legislation must follow. The pangs of hunger are already affecting tens of thousands of workers, as the factories cannot be run without fuel, and their families have to rely on their savings or the small strike pay.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, March 14. A most serious strike disturbance is reported from Haydock in Lancashire. A crowd of strikers from the Earlestown district first went to the pit with the object of preventing the firemen from filling the tube with coal. They were driven away by the police. The strikers then went to the Prince's pit, and after doing some damage, returned to Wood pit, to the number of 1,000. Forty policemen were met with a fusillade of stones. Three policemen were injured and taken to hospital. The police finally were able to flank the crowd, but were unable to arrest any. Additional police have been sent to Haydock.

Special Evening Telegram. LONDON, March 14. The Times to-day publishes a special article showing the financial loss inflicted practically on all railways in the Kingdom. Twenty-four companies show a decrease in receipts of $2,500,000. About 85 per cent. of the decrease is due to freight traffic. Some railways in the colliery districts have suffered decreases of more than 70 per cent. It is estimated that since the strike began Britain has lost the sale of 190,000 tons of bunker coal to the world's coaling stations.

Special to Evening Telegram. DUNKERTOWN, Iowa, March 14. Twenty-five were injured, 13 seriously and one fatally, in a wreck on the Chicago and Great Western Railway, three miles east of here this morning.

Time of Election.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir, - Please inform me through the columns of your valuable paper if the people of this country have any right to demand a General Election in the Fall of 1912. Sir Edward Morris says that the elections is to take place in 1913.

I do not know what the law has to say in the matter, but I think according to the statutes the Morris Party must go out of power automatically about the first of June 1913. That being so, I think it advisable that a general election be held next Fall. The Spring is not a suitable time for an election, therefore, the proper time would be next Fall, 1912. It would not be wise or even just to the people of this country, to permit the present extravagant party to retain power one minute longer than the law allows. The people of this country never sanctioned such reckless expenditure of public moneys, as that being practised by the Morris Government, and should be permitted to pronounce upon it at the polls as soon as possible. - Please advise us soon as possible, if we can by any constitutional means bring about a general election in the Fall of 1912.

Also, Mr. Editor, we should like to ask if any provision has been made for a revision of the voters list. Yours truly, NORTHERN VOTERS. Minard's Liniment Co. Limited. Gentlemen, - Theodore Dorais, a customer of mine, was completely cured of rheumatism after five years of suffering, by the judicious use of MINARD'S LINIMENT. The above facts can be verified by writing to him, to the Parish Priest or any of his neighbours. A. COTE, Merchant. St. Isidore, Que., 12 May, '98.

skyscraper office building to replace their present headquarters at the corner of Wall and Nashau Streets, opposite the Stock Exchange and the sub-treasury. It is said the Morgan firm has just completed the purchase of property with a frontage of 83 feet on Wall Street and 113 feet on Broad Street, which has heretofore been in the hands of the Drexels. The plot is considered the most valuable piece of its size in New York. Real estate men estimate its market value at nearly $1,000 a square foot. At $1,000 a square foot it would be worth about 9,000,000. Anthony Drexel bought a part of it in 1872 for $250,000.

Taking Ancestral Portraits.

The most tragic form of snobbery in a country place is that which concern itself with the tracing of a pedigree. In my travels I came upon a man who confessed that he had made thousands of pounds out of the conceit and snobbishness of folk living in country places, and especially people who happened to possess names of a high-sounding character. His method of work was simple, and only the ultra-snob could be taken in by it. He would glance through a local directory and select a few names of the Fitz-Blank style. A short visit to the town would help him to determine the character of the person—a snob is easily distinguished—and he would return to his place and write that he had come into the possession of a portrait which he had every reason to believe was that of an ancestor of Mr. Fitz-Blank. Their would be a few quaint hieroglyphics on the back of the canvas showing that the original was a native of the town in which Mr. Fitz-Blank resided. In nine cases out of ten that picture sold at a price which meant a profit of 100 per cent. to the dealer after he had paid the little Italian artist, who turned out the picture by the dozen. In many a country-house to-day there is a fine old full-length portrait of an ancestor which was painted in a murky studio somewhere down Whitechapel way.—London Saturday Journal.

Irish Comedy.

On Monday afternoon and night at St. Patrick's Hall the B. I. S. Dramatic Company will offer "Miles Sraun", a play which they have obtained the right to produce under a heavy royalty. It is a fine style of the national comedy, and with the customary addition of specialties appropriate to the day should make an excellent programme.

Pneumonia from a Cold. PNEUMONIA is second only to consumption in the number of deaths which it causes, and like consumption always has its beginning with a cold. Cold in the head, fever and chills, a cough which gradually becomes dry and more painful in the chest, rapid difficult breathing, feelings of exhaustion and depression—these are symptoms of pneumonia. You can prevent and cure pneumonia by the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, the greatest of all treatments for the throat and lungs. The only safe way is to regard every cold as serious. By frequent doses of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine you can quickly break up the cold and guard against dangerous developments. 25c a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmansosa Baes & Co., Limited, Toronto.

The Evening Chit-Chat By RUTH CAMERON

"My friend," Mrs. Louise Noble, "you and I and Fred, young, heedless, cynical, living in this reckless town of New York, may laugh sometimes at old things like the law and religion when they say, 'thou shalt not.' We may think that phrase was written for old fogies. And we may sneer at 'The wages of sin is death.' But my friend, there comes to all of us sometimes the knowledge that the law and religion are right. What they say we shall not do—that we cannot do without suffering. I have learned that. Also I have learned that the wages of sin is death. It's worse than death—it's a Hell on earth."

Louise Suydam was the wife of Walter Lispenard Suydam, a New York millionaire. After eight years of marriage she decided that she was misinformed and eloped with Frederick Noble, a plumber. Mr. Suydam divorced her and she married Mr. Noble. After living together less than six months, less than three weeks after their marriage, these two unhappy people committed suicide. And the reason for this act was that they had found that the love (?) which caused them to defy conventions and morality, which they looked upon as an eternal affinity decreed by God and nature, and not to be denied, no longer existed. The monotony and common-place of ordinary married life had killed this love, which was so great that they were willing to sacrifice everything to it, in less than three weeks.

Probably you know most of these facts. They were chronicled widely enough. I am merely relating them for those who did not chance to read them, and recalling them for those who did. In the words I have quoted, I think Louise Suydam Noble preached a powerful sermon as any minister ever gave. For the minister tells us that the wages of sin is death, because that is what he believes. She tells us that because she knows. She had received that wages, and more than that—"a Hell on earth."

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse. It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in the office of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as strictly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial. It makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well. You can't afford to accept a secret sturium as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition.

When the schr. Arethusa, Capt. Clayton Morrissey, settled for his recent monster fresh fish fare landed at Boston recently, he took a check for $3,315.29, which is the largest ever given at the T. wharf exchange for a fresh haddock trip, and as far as is known the largest of any sailing vessel in this branch of the fishery. As a result of the fancy stock, the crew shared $78.77 for their part of the trip, on which they were 11 days out. Audubon societies, game clubs and other organizations for the preservation of bird life in the United States, are urging the public to scatter grain for the grouse, quail and other birds, and to hang pieces of suet on trees, so that the feathered folk may not starve. It is not the depth of the snow or the cold that causes starvation among the birds, but the fact that the ground was covered with a coating of ice before the snow fell, which is impenetrable to the birds and covers their food supply. Twenty-seven prisoners and prison guards were killed recently at Puebla, Mexico, in a fight which followed an attempt by the prisoners to escape from jail. Twenty of the men succeeded in escaping. A force of cavalry, which was hurriedly despatched to the assistance of the prison guards, had a severe fight with the escaping prisoners. A carpet, which took three years in the making, is one of the treasures of the much talked of Gaekwar of Baroda. The carpet is only 10 ft. by 6 ft. in size, but it is woven from strings of pure pearls, with a centre and corner circles of diamonds. The magnificent fabric cost £200,000 ($1,000,000), and is guarded in the Maharajah's treasure room. Intense indignation has been aroused in Vienna over a ghastly outrage which has occurred at Staats, the tomb of the Counts Collalto, the youngest branch of the princely line of that name. Bodies were taken from four coffins and a quantity of valuable jewellery, which had been buried with them, has been stolen. Following the desecration of the tomb of Prince Alexander Karageorgevitch, this second outrage has caused a great sensation throughout Austria.
