Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,—How much did you laugh (I'm not finished yet), when you read yecterday that the Mayor and Coun-cillors had the staff brought to order re watering the streets. Now did you ever, since the age of Moses hear of such bare faced gall? Hare we are, the 23rd of August, after the most dusty season ever known in this city, and only yesterday the so called Counciliars on the so called ouncillors opened their eyes and saw the dust. Too late friends, too late. Four doom was sealed before yesterday, and now to try and hide your own neglect by casting the blame on the employees is rather thin and won't work in the present age. Your resig-nation should be demanded by the

The Housing Scheme.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,—I have seen not a few letters in the different papers re the great housing scheme brought about by one of our citizens in the person of Hon. J. Anderson. This I am sure is to reside, whereas now some of the places of the poor of the city are almost unbearable. No wonder, Mr. Editor, we have sickness around us, and no wonder there are so many deaths. This question should have been brought up long ago, but never too late to do good, and I am sure that it is in reliable hands that will carry it through to the finish. This, I might
