TO COMBAT BOLSHEVISM.

PARIS, Feb. 26. K. H. Baker, of Troy, N.Y., representing the Supreme Council in matters of food relief, has just returned to Paris from a tour of Rumania and Serbia. He says that the Rumanian Army, numbering two hundred thousand, which had been partly demobil ized is being remobilized hastily to meet Bolshevik attacks along the borbetween - Bessarabia and th Ukraine, where the Bolshevik are massing troops. The Rumanians fear of spring. Mr. Baker rein Rumania, owing to the lack of food and clothes. Thousands of women and children, he declares, are compelled to walk barefooted in the snow Complete paralysis of the Serbian railway prevents relief work and the suffering in Serbia is intense, Mr. Baker says.

Under its branches, tradition says, that St. Luke and St. Paul rested.

It is a huge tree, eighteen yards in circumference, and over two thousand years old. It is surrounded by a raised platform, breast high, which has been built to support the trunk of the tree after it had become hollow and weak from age.

The lower branches are still flourishing, and have been supported by pieces of antique columns, over the upper ends of which the branches have grown like caps, in consequence of the pressure of their own

Close by the tree is a solid marble seat, which is believed to have been the chair of the famous Greek doctor Hippocrates, the "father" of midicine." He taught his pupils from that seat and as he was born over four hundred years before Christ, it gives some idea of the great age of
