Thus do people of to-day fail to play or even wholly to comprehend the tragic part that humanity now fills. Some nations among the family continue fairly, well supplied with the needs of life, and find it easy to forget how some other lack these things. Then, again, the great changes take time to happen. THE PROTECTING FLAG.

It's the laughter of the children that Old Glory guarantees, It's the safety of our women on the land and on the seas; It's the little homes we're building and the peace that evening brings That the Flag above is shielding, and a thousand other things.

Oh, don't you catch the vision that is shining through its folds? Can't you see the glorious future that our Starry Banner holds? Don't you see the glad to-morrows for this nation of the free

And the happy men and women that your children are to be? You shall never know contentment save the Flag is over head, If you turn from it and scorn it you shall dine on bitter bread,

It's your promise to your children that when you are dead and gone They shall have a wise protector and in safety journey on. Guard the Flag that flies above you, true to God and true to man, Stand forever at its service, deaf to every cruel clan!

For there is no dream you chorish, and no deed you hope to do, But Old Glory in its beauty guarantees to yours and you.
