Diplomatic Victory.

The Turks, with the assistance of France have won a diplomatic victory over Britain. The return of Turkey to Europe agreed to by Premier Lloyd George must be regarded as a triumph over the British Prime Minister, whose ideas and wishes in this direction were altogether antagonistic to any restoration of Turkish power on the European side of the Straits. The return of Constantinople to the Kemalists, contrary to the terms of the Peace Treaty means nothing more nor less than a complete breakdown by Britain, and the radical failure of Mr. Lloyd George's negotiations. France has again thrown a monkey wrench into the machinery of British diplomacy, and the agreement of the Imperial Government to the representations and arguments of French statesmen must leave a sour taste in the mouths of Englishmen. Britain refused to agree to the terms proposed by France regarding German reparations. Hence France has blocked the ideals of the British Government leader and has now, for herself if not for Europe, won a triumph that may be more disastrous than defeat. Contrary to the expressed opinion of the editor of the Greek daily paper, Atlantis, Turkey has not lost her prestige. It has been restored to her through the joint efforts of France and Italy, and Britain has been forced by these nations to agree to a policy at once distasteful and degrading. The breakdown of the Allied Conference over the main question of a moratorium for German reparations is responsible for the new advent of the Turks to Europe. Though there was no rupture between Britain and France over this matter, it was well known that the latter country felt sore over the British attitude, and was bent on a diplomatic checkmate elsewhere. The move came much more quickly than anticipated, and the result of French methods is seen in the almost complete breakdown of Britain's administration on the Turkish question. One of the issues of the late war was that the Turks should be expelled from Europe and Constantinople be internationalised. The victory won by the sword has been nullified, and the "unspeakable Turk" comes back to Europe more aggressive than ever. It is not a wholesome swallow for the British. The dose of Turkey's return is nauseating, yet for reasons it has to be kept down and permitted to operate. Whether the Greeks will finally agree to the reoccupation of Constantinople and the restoration of Turkish rule is a matter to be yet settled. If they are, as claimed by the editor of the Greek journal from whose writings we have already quoted, the only guarantors of law and order in what was the Ottoman Empire, and are the only ones who can revive that whole country (Turkey) nationally, politically, commercially, financially and socially, then it must be apparent to the most superficial student of foreign affairs that the Greeks are not going to countenance any new building up of Turkey by the Turks with equanimity, for a power so hostile to every Greek tradition, constitutes a menace which the Greek people cannot afford to have threatening them, with only a border line intervening. Settlement of this may not be concluded without Greece having a say as a determining factor ultimately.

Rotary To-Day.

ADDRESS ON BOYS' WORK.

Mr. C. F. Watson was the principal speaker at to-day's meeting of the Rotary Club held at 1 p.m. in the Green Lantern. The subject of his address was "Ten Years of Boys' Work" and the speaker's many years of work among the boys of Toronto fully qualified him to discourse on this topic with authority. He told many interesting stories of his experiences which were greatly appreciated by his hearers. Rotarian G. F. Kearney was the chairman for the day. The District Governor, Rotarian Walter Grant of Charlottetown is expected to arrive in St. John's next week.

Icelandic Trawler

in Port.

HAS 75 TONS FISH.

S. S. Skallagrímur, 1½ days from Grand Banks, arrived in port this morning for coal and supplies. The ship is an Icelandic trawler and hauls for 75 tons or about 1,500 qts. salt bulk fish. Owing to poor fishery in the North Sea the trawlers, both Icelandic and French, came out to the Grand Banks, and as in this instance they met with much success. Another Icelandic trawler is expected in port for supplies in a day or two.

Lost Four Fingers.

WORKMAN'S HAND CAUGHT IN SAW.

George Locke, an employee of the Horwood Lumber Company, met with a serious accident this morning which resulted in the loss of four fingers. While engaged in his work at the mill, his hand was caught in one of the saws and the fingers were completely severed. The injured man was taken to the drug store of Mr. Peter O'Mara where the wounded hand was bandaged. He was afterwards removed to the General Hospital.

Copper Ore Shipment.

REVIVING OLD INDUSTRY.

As well be noticed by our shipping column to-day, Messrs. C. F. Bennett & Co. are making a shipment of copper ore from the "Cove" mines by the S.S. Elizabeth R. The ore is being shipped to New York, but the present state of the market does not return much remuneration. It is quite a while since copper was exported from this once famous mine, and it is hoped that the present shipment of about 3,000 tons will be found profitable, thus making a continuation of the industry possible.

Motor Car Accident.

MACHINE TURNED TURTLE.

Last night a well known victualler, resident of Nagle's Hill, came near being killed when his motor car was ditched near Cook's farm and turned turtle. The car broke through a steel wire fence and turned over in a field, smashing the wind shield and pinning the driver. Fortunately several people returning home discovered the man's predicament and rescued him, none the worse for his experience.

HIS DIARY.

Sept. 24th.—Up betimes and to the office in mighty bad humour. From despatches out of England I learn how Constantinople is given back to the Turks, and this angers me mightily, seeing how all that were killed in Gallipoli did but have their lives wasted, and the Dardanelles will be no longer free, even if the Turks promise it. Anon to the Majestic playhouse and see there the picture of the Three Musketeers, but I greatly disappointed, seeing how D. Fairbanks did make a buffoon of D'Artagnan, but in other particulars the picture a mighty fine one.

McMurdo's Store News.

TUESDAY, Sept. 26, '22.
A good Shampoo Liquid is always in order, and our Emulsified Coconut Oil is a shampoo liquid that never disappoints. Not only does it cleanse hair and scalp thoroughly, but leaves a beautiful gloss upon the hair which adds greatly to its appearance. We can fully recommend this Shampoo.
We have still some choice boxes of Whitman's Chocolates left and suggest a trial of this new and delicious line.

Lumber Plant.

EMPLOYMENT AT BARACHOIS FOR 150 MEN.

Employment for 150 men is being provided in a lumber mill which an American firm has erected at Barachois, Bay St. George. Production will commence shortly and the work given will practically obviate all unemployment on that section of the West Coast. The crops at St. George's this year have been very good, and although the fishery was poor the people are fairly well off on the whole.

S.S. Home on Dock.

DAMAGE NOT EXTENSIVE.

S. S. Home went on dry dock yesterday and examination this morning proved that the damage to the hull is not as extensive as at first thought and is confined to a few planks amidships, which are dented. The work of repairing will be rushed in order to get the ship away on her regular schedule.

Partridge Berries

Plentiful.

LARGE SHIPMENT EXPORTED.
This season partridge berries are very plentiful around Bay de Verde and Old Perlian, and the people there are, as a consequence, able to earn ready money with which to purchase barrels have been packed and families have earned as high as eight dollars per day. Buyers pay twenty cents per gallon and so numerous are the berries that a man can pick 14 gallons in a day. The Sable I. sailing to-day, took nearly a part cargo of these berries and on the previous trip over one thousand barrels were carried.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

TURKS WILL ACCEPT CONDITIONS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 26.
The reply of the Turkish Nationalist Government to the Allied peace note has been completed, and comprises the acceptance of conditions laid down at the Paris Conference, according to Enver Pasha, side to Mustafa Kemal, who has just arrived from Smyrna. The Nationalists, however, insist upon their right to conduct military movements during the progress of the Conference and also demand admission to a meeting of all the Allies and the Angora Government including Russia, Persia and Bulgaria. An Armistice Conference will be held at Mudanya on or about October 2nd, provided the Turkish reply to the Allied peace note is accepted, according to a decision of the Council of Allied Commissioners held yesterday afternoon at the British Embassy, attended by Hamid Bey Turkish representative. Hamid asks pledges from the British that positions around Chanak be not reinforced during the progress of negotiations.

SULTAN MAY ABDICATE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 16.
The Sultan is said to be in a state of complete collapse, and indications are growing that his abdication is imminent. His entourage are best by tears, and one by one they leave the palace, where violent epithets, said to have been used by Mustafa Kemal in newspaper interviews, regarding the Sultan have caused painful dismay.

OTHER NEAR EAST FACTORS JOIN ISSUE.

ATHENS, Sept. 26.
Premier Triantafyllides is planning to strengthen his cabinet will further by proposing the creation of a National Ministry, representing all parties, and including Venizelos, who would serve as special envoy in entente capitals. Public opinion in Greece is aroused over a reported mobilization of Serbian forces near the northern frontier of Greece, together with the activities of Bulgarians, and the opinion is expressed that Jugo Slavia and Bulgaria plan to take advantage of Greece's present plight to occupy Macedonia, and thus secure outlets on the Aegean Sea.

TURKS VIOLATE NEUTRALITY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 26.
Simultaneously with their occupation, yesterday of Erin Keul, it is learned that Turkish Nationalists also took possession of Kum Kaleh, at the mouth of the Dardanelles. The occupying forces consisted of cavalry. The seizure of these places constitutes a violation of the neutral zone of the Straits.

DISCUSSING A SUCCESSOR.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 26.
The Sultan was stirred by deepest emotion when his brother-in-law, Damad Ferid Pasha, left suddenly for Switzerland without bidding him farewell, and nationalist circles freely discuss possible candidates for succession to the imperial throne. Prince Selim, nephew of the Sultan appears to be the favorite choice.

TRANSLATION OF EX-PREMIER'S REMAINS.

OTTAWA, Sept. 26.
With simple ceremony, attended by a few former friends, the remains of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, were yesterday removed from their original resting place in Notre Dame Cemetery to a vault built underneath the spot where a monument will shortly be erected to his memory.

POSSIBLY!

LONDON, Sept. 26.
The diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, according to a Reuters despatch, says that in League of Nations circles, Canada, Australia and New Zealand, also neutrals among the smaller powers, strongly favor the direct remission to League of Peace Conference of the entire Near East problem. They think Turkey will more readily accept such terms, as anti-imperialism recognize the League's disinterestedness.

HOPING FOR THE BEST.

LONDON, Sept. 26.
An optimistic view is being taken in Cabinet circles of the second invasion of the neutral zone, on the Asiatic side of Dardanelles, announced in Constantinople despatches, and the opinion is expressed that the Allies proposal for a Peace Conference had not reached Mustafa Kemal before the latest advance occurred, or that it was the work of uncontrolled irregulars.

Like Mother's Make.

There was a worried look on the grocer's face as he rushed halloo down the street and ran up the steps of Acadia Villa.

"I'm sorry to say there's been a slight mistake, Mrs. Grumble," he panted. "You ordered two pounds of oatmeal yesterday, and by mistake my apprentice put up some sawdust that our grapes came packed in!"

"Oh!" replied the lady. "Then I reckon my 'husbun' must 'ave got through with 'art a pound o' wood for breakfast!"

"You don't mean to say that he ate it?" gasped the man in the apron.

"Course 'e did," was the reply.

The lady leaned back on the doorstep, and for three minutes indulged in a laugh that brought all her neighbours to the scene.

"Wal, that's right-down funny," she observed with a laugh.

"Funny?" queried the grocer, "Yus, funny! 'Tere we've been married thirteen years come first of August, and Charles 'as never paid me a compliment till this mornin' at breakfast, when blest if 'e didn't pass 'is plate for another go o' that sawdust, an' told me it reminded 'im o' the porridge 'is mother used to make!"

BORN.

On Sept. 11th, to Mr. and Mrs. L. Young (nee Elsie Ellis), Provost, Alberta, a daughter.

DIED.

On Monday, the 25th inst., Ambrose Dwyer, aged 81 years. Funeral to-morrow at 2:30 p.m. from his late residence, 15½ Prospect Street.
