IN WANT OF COAL

Morning Albertan

The report of the special committee appointed by the city council to enquire into the coal situation in Calgary was a revelation to the coal consumers.

And if the committee had been appointed to smooth the path of the coal dealers and transportation companies they could not have gone about their work in a better manner.

They interviewed E. H. Crandell and he reported that he was getting the output of the Reliance mine. Well that looked good in the report but they forgot to add that on that day he had no coal on hand. On the same day I went to C. S. Lot's office and there was a legend on the wall: 'No coal for real taken.' I telephoned R. C. Thomas, 'no coal,' went to Randall's office and this goody, goody, transportation company had confiscated six cars of his Little coal; visited Breckenridge, Lund Co., no coal, two cars on the way, they have not arrived yet. Yet Shaw had no coal, but could deliver a load of wood next week.

But the members of the committee may be Christian scientists and ask us to believe we have coal and we will be alright, but it is hard to do with the mercury hovering between 30 and 40 below. But it was ever thus, the consumer cuts no figures in any investigations.

Their conclusions as to the cause of the coal famine was altogether at variance with the petition of the mine owners to the railway commission re transportation facilities.

Respectfully yours, in want of coal THOS. MCKENZIE.

"For the information of our correspondent it may be stated, without interfering with the point, he has so far made in his letter, that the thermometer at its lowest only registered 84 below zero this winter.—Ed.)

LAST WEEK OF SPECIAL SERVICES

Messrs. Crossley and Hunter begin Last Series With a Good Audience.

A good number of people were present in the Central Methodist church last evening when Rev. Messrs. Hunter and Crossley opened the last week of their revivalistic campaign in Calgary.

Mr. Hunter's text was "And it came to pass that the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God."

Jesus Christ was the most popular speaker and the most persecuted preacher the world has ever known; the people pressed to hear him, "I would go from one end of the world to the other to hear my Lord preach" said the evangelist. "I have heard Beecher, Talmage, Moody, but unfortunately just missed hearing Spurgeon, he died before I reached England. I have no doubt however that I shall hear him in heaven for I believe we shall be able to speak and sing in that better land. He was an outside speaker too, 'I see that the Salvationists are copying the Lord in that respect and I think we should do likewise sometimes.'"

"Our Lord commanded the disciples to get into their boat and launch forth on the lake. We should do well to launch forth in our prayers. Endeavor to raise our churches to a higher standard, launch out in faith, and in your mode of living."

"Some people when they pray are wound up as it were, so that they never get to the amen style. 'I will never have such a man kill a prayer meeting when I am present.'"

Success always humbles a good man. He is afraid to put a preacher on the back and tell him you enjoyed his sermon, it will only spur him on to his best efforts. "Fear not from henceforth ye shall catch men."

This requires a certain amount of tact, preachers must always use bait too. Any child can catch minnows, but catching rock bass is another thing; you have to go into the mud to catch eels; some men in this town are in the mud too. Snuffers fine spear when I go splashing around I stir up the society women, the liquor traffic, card playing etc.

Before commencing his address Mr. Hunter offers a special prayer for the town of High River.

"What must I do to be saved," was Mr. Crossley's text.

It is an intelligent question. It would be an indication of your intelligence that you recognize how much is at stake and decide to come forward. A necessary question, if you are not already a christian you must do something to be saved. When a person takes poison it is necessary to give him an antidote in order to save his life if possible. So it is with the person of sin in Calgary, the Lord Jesus provides an antidote. There is no sentiment in taking this antidote but a great deal of common sense.

It is a personal question. People say 'stand as good a chance as anyone else, as good a chance as I have in church, yes but the hypocrites may not get to heaven, and where would you be then?'

It is an answered question, believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved. Some people believe in Christ but go on neglecting his great Salvation, the three things necessary to obtain this are the assent of the mind, the consent of the will and the trust of the heart.

"Lo the tailor and all his family were saved. Some people say that they don't believe in sudden conversion. How long does it take a father to forgive his child that has done wrong? So it would take the Lord any longer to forgive a sinner."

It is a supreme question and means to be saved from sin to righteousness not to swear, and not to lie or cheat. A courageous question, if used to take a great of pluck to confess Jesus you haven't the courage to do what is right and take your stand this evening yet there isn't one saint or sinner present who wouldn't congratulate you if you would ask it and be lost.
