Sir Charles Tupper, after warmly complimenting the mover and seconder upon their speeches, said that Canada had been highly honored by an invita-tion to the jubilee demonstration, and it was fortunate for Canada that she should be represented by so able a Premier upon so important and august an occasion. He opined that whoever wrote the cable dispatch describing Canada as being penalized, in having only one representative, while Australia had seven, knew little of the high position which Canada occupied in Great Britain.

Turning to controversial matters, Sir Charles scored the Government for pronouncing the Manitoba school question as settled. Who authorized the Government to settle it.
