A LONDON LADY EXPLAINS MATTER

Says the Local Representatives Were Given No Chance to Put Their Case Before the Meeting,

At the annual meeting of the Imper ial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, held in Toronto on Wednesday, a resolution was passed commending the action of the executive council of the society on their action regarding the monument to be erected in London. The resolution was moved by Mrs. Macdonald, of Goderich, and seconded by Mrs. Macdonald, of Goderich, and seconded by Interment took place at St. Thomas. Mrs. Sutherland, of Hamilton, Ont. and reads as follows:

"That the out-of-town Toronto chapters of the Imperial Orler of the Daughters of the Empire, wish to take this occasion to express to the president and executive council of the head office, our entire approval of their action in connection with their refusal to sanction the erection of a monument in London, Ont., to her late Majesty Queen Victoria, and to the soldiers who fell in South Africa, with the figure of a soldier on the top and a medallion with her majesty's head beneath.

While we keenly regret that anything should have occurred to mar the harmony of our patriotic aims and efforts, we trust we may be permitted to entertain the hope that regrettable incidents of this, or other character, may never arise again in our order, causing the slightest friction."

Jones, who is a grave-digger, while enlarging Dunne's lot, removed the bodies and replaced them. Mrs. Carolan charged that other bodies were substituted. The bodies were exhumed and examined by Dr. Cole. Only part of the remains was found, and two gold rings and a very large pearl rosary, by which Mrs. Carolan hoped to identify those of her daughter, were missing.

The grave-digger denied seeing any jewelry, and stated that when he first made the removal the remains were unceremoniquely.
