Fresh Emulsion

OIL with Hypophosphites is the one to buy whenever an emulsion is needed, because it is always fresh. Freshness is important, because a fresh emulsion is more palatable and more acceptable to the stomach. A stale emulsion is also one that has undergone chemical changes that impair its value. For chronic coughs, bronchial troubles, incipient consumption or any debilitated condition, emulsion is the best possible

He was found at the Bascom House, where he has been staying with his little daughter, Monta, since the inquest proceedings began. When approached by Detective Greer, he submitted quietly to arrest. He seemed aimost to be expecting it, and for the past few days has seemed very morbid, eating very little, and on his knee talking to her in a low tone, and lavishing on her kisses and other tokens of affection. When spoken to he has always answered briefly and quietly, and has shown no desire to continue any conversation. Several times he has been approached by newspapermen, but refuses to say anything about the case, and has spoken

Evidence was given by other witnesses which went to show that Mcment to one of them that he would be free by Christmas. A week before the fire occurred he told a very intimate friend that he did not know where he would be on the following Sunday, "Behind the bars or in the grave." The fire occurred on the following Friday night. In the stand, McLaughlin admitted that he had told that the two boys. Charlie and Gordon, were not his own sons. In the witness stand he said he had found this to be untrue. Since the report of Professor Ellis nas shown that there was poison in the stomach of Mrs. McLaughlin, it is altogether likely that the bodies of the two boys will be exhumed, and their stomachs will be sent down to Pro-fessor Ellis for examination. The inquest will be concluded Monday evening next, when the official report of Professor Ellis, which has changed the whole aspect of the case, will be entered as evidence. Other witnesses will be Dr. A. J. McClintock, who performed the postmortem;

Dr. W. C. Shier and Mrs. McLaugh-Little Monta will be there, too, A the last session it was while instructing her on the nature of an oath that Crown Attorney Farewell unintentionally frightened her.
