I regard God as a unia most daring, as well as successful, versal personality. There is one infinite energy in all human life, from which we cannot escape. We are not a set of separsted wills going our own ways, but there is a unity in man. The whole doctrine of evolution illustrates that unity. If there were no unity it would be impossible for us to study history or ethical laws." Admitting that Dr. Abbott's words are not the remark in a loud voice came from case, and that his subsequent utterances modified somewhat his earlier statements, yet unless he absolutely retracted the ideas expressed above, we can regard his "Views of God" only as the most thinly veiled pantheism.
