658 Dundas St. ANOTHER GREAT FIRE VISITS CINCINNATI

The Blaze Destroyed a Million Dollars Worth of Property.

Cincinnati, Jan. 11.—The big Chamber of Commerce building was gutted by fire last night, and the loss will reach fully a million dollars. The Cincinnati Stock Exchange and the Louisville and Nashville Railroad offices, both of which contained records almost invaluable, were consumed in the conflagration.

Only the bare walls of what was Cincinnati's most magnificent archi-tectural building remains. The building was valued at $1,000,000, while the been cut fixtures in the various offices were valued at $50,000. The stocks of several business houses in the block were damaged, but the fire was confined to the Chamber of Commerce building. Fully 5,000 persons were crowded Fully 5,000 persons were crowded directly outside the fire lines when the roof collapsed. Smoke and flying sparks filled the streets for two squares and a panic followed. Men and women fought to escape and many were trampled in the rush. Many sustained bruises and cuts, but no one was reported seriously injured.

Owing to the density of the smoke the police were powerless to cope with the situation for fully ten minutes, and nearby office buildings were turned into hospitals for the injured and shelter places for the panic-stricken.
