SAYS CHRISTIAN SCIENCE DRIVES FOLKS INSANE

Sensational Statement by Celebrated Specialist On Mental Disease.

[Canadian Press.] London, Jan. 2.—Dr. Bernard Hollander, one of the best-known European specialists on mental diseases, makes a remarkable contribution to the campaign which is being carried

Dr. Hollander asserts emphatically that his investigations have shown him many patients have become insane on the subject of Christian Science, and that in cases of persons with psychopathic tendencies it only requires the extra stimulus which these beliefs furnish to send them off their balance.

"Christian Science." concluded Dr. Hollander, 'is a danger to the com-become insane. At first I thought these might be a few isolated cases, but when trying to find attendants with experience in such cases, I was informed by various mental nurses' associations that they have several male and female nurses on their books who have attended patients insane on the subject of Christian Science. It is, therefore, evident that my experience is not singular."

PRINCE HAS THROAT TROUBLE

main at Danzig Until Better.

London, Jan. 2.-Many reports have een current regarding the reasons which have caused the German crown prince to remain at Danzig, one being that he had been ordered to stay there as punishment for his demonstration in the Reichstag at the time of the Morocco debate. In many quarters the official statement that he was suffering from a cold were discredited.

A Berlin dispatch last night says: "No official news is available her as to the crown prince's actual condition beyond the statement that he is unable for the present to come to Ber lin. I learn, however, from anothe source in touch with court circles that the crown prince is suffering from a serious form of bronchial catarrh, ime to his bed.

STARTS AT WINGHAM Coroner Milne, of Blyth, Is Probing Death of William Rennie.

[Special to The Advertiser]

Wingham, Jan. 2.-The inquest into the death of William Rennie commenced at 1:30 this afternoon before Coroner Dr. Milne, of Blyth. The affair has aroused the greatest interest and the court room was crowded. The principal witnesses are Thomas Kennedy, of Toronto, the architect, who was with Rennie on the night of the fatality and who also took some of the drugs which resulted in Rennie's death, and Dr. Kennedy, at whose place Rennie secured the bromide and chloral. The inquiry is in the hands of Crown Attorney Seagar, who directed the ques
