The many friends of Ex Mayor Thomas Kennedy are very pleased to hear that he is recovering from his recent serious illness.

Tuesday last was St. Patrick's which is remembered sentiment in Canada and all over the world as the festival of the patron saint of Ireland. He labored successfully during the fifth century for the conversion of Ireland to Christianity, from the ancient Druidism which formerly prevailed throughout Western Europe. One of St. Patrick's well known successors was St. Columba who founded the famous seat of piety learning and missionary endeavors in the holy isle of Iona in the Scottish Hebrides. A solemn high mass sung in St. Patrick's church at 9.30 by the parish priest of Griffon Cove and attended by a very large congregation the largest in many years marked the main celebration of the day. In the evening at seven o'clock a card party was held in the Convent of Our Lady of the Rosary, the proceeds of which were to aid that institution.

Mr. Julian Garrett of Haldimand west a veteran of the Great War was here on Friday March 17th, on business.
