The feature of the markets to-day has been the drop in the American markets, partly occasioned no doubt by the recent failures in the west. New York market closed on Saturday %c lower than the opening and this morning opened from $4c to be weaker, closing an additional $2c weaker for June and July and 1%c for August and September.

The visible supply also caused considerable discussion. Wheat showed a decrease of $22,998 to show the opening and this morning opened from $4c to be used in the opening and this morning opened from $4c to be used figures. There are no stocks in store in local warehouses.

WHEAT—Liverpool advices report wheat quiet with poor demand and unchanged. The local market has ruled quiet and white and red are easier at 90c to 97c outside and about 99c on track. New York market opened $4c easier and dropped $2c at close at 91%c for June and July, 90%c for August and 90%c for Sept.

OATS—Are passably steady at 41%c to 42c on track for mixed and 48c for white, with 37c and $28.6c respectively outside. JOHN STARK & CO
