Legal Difficulties Ground Out by Learned Judges. In the action of William McKay against the City of Toronto and Inspector Robert Awde, claiming damages for seizure of al-leged diseased bogs, Mr. Winchester gave judgment yesterday, refusing to strike out the defence of the defendant Awde, who claims protection as a public officer and pleaded not guilty by statute. The acting master holds that Inspector Awde is a publi

Lougheed and Steward, the Christian scientists, are suing Coroner Johnson for $2000 damages for false arrest.

An order was made allowing trustees to pay $3000 into court to the credit of Mrs. Margaret Harrington of Markham. She became entitled to the money from the sale of certain lands, but refused to take the money because she wanted the land instead. The money was placed in the bank in 1883, where, it has since remained. The trustees will be released from all liability on payment of the sum into court.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa. Mr. Epps had provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subthe maladies are foating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves welf fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
