

ANNALS

OF

ST ANNE DE BEAUPRÉ

—EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.—THE DIRECTORS OF LEVIS COLLEGE.

CONTENTS.

Spiritual advantages.—A word to the friends of St. Anne.—The worship and patronage of St. Anne; Devotion to St. Anne is truly Catholic; homage paid to her by the Western Church: Italy (Continued).—The national league of prayer for Ireland.—The pilgrimage of Ste-Anne de la Palue, in Brittany (Concluded).—The triple heart: St. Benedict Joseph Labre (poetry).—A child miraculously protected.—The worship of St. Anne in Ceylon (concluded).—Favors obtained through the intercession of St. Anne.—Time-table for the Q. M. & C. Railway.—Conditions of subscription to the Annals of St. Anne.—Table of contents of Vol. II (new series).

Price of subscription: 35 cents; all correspondence to be directed to Rev. C. E. CARRIER, Levis College, Levis, P. Q.

SPIRITUAL ADVANTAGES.

1^o Two masses are offered up every week, one on Monday, and the second, on Saturday, for subscribers and their families; 2^o another mass is said, on the first Friday of every month, for deceased subscribers.

—360—

A WORD TO THE FRIENDS OF ST. ANNE.

Before ending the last number of our second volume (Second series), we must address a word of gratitude to our kind readers, and to those who have shown zeal for the diffusion of the Annals. May saint Anne reward them as they deserve!

At the same time we cannot refrain from complaining of the apathy of so many would-be clients of