officials from the highes. ... the smoothly and pleasantly during the lowest are most courteous and this entire trip. We could not have From our new Correspondent is fast becoming one of the most arranged matters better had we had; popular roads on the continent and it in charge ourselves. is being used more and more by the travelling public.

The pressmen and their lady friends owe a great debt of gratitude to Mr. E. Tiffin, the traffic manager of the Intercolonial, who accompanied them throughout the trip and did everything in his power to secure the comfort and enjoyment of every member of the party, in which he was ably assisted by his charming wife. Mr. Liffin began at the lowest round of the ladd is and has risen step by step, by virtue of | nearly all of ies, we want to go his genuine worth, and ability, until he has attained his present responsible position; and that he is connently qualified therefor is amply demonstrated by the splendid results that have been attained under his management so far. To Mr. Lyons, General Passenger Agent, and to Mr. Lambkin, Assistant General Passenger Agent, and Mr. Archibald, of the Dining Service, the tourists are also indebted for many courtesies and favors.

Among shose who joined the excursionists at various points and onduced not a little to the pleasure and interest of the trip were Mr. Sharp, Superintendent of the Prince Edward Island Radway, Dr. Kendail, M. P., and Mr. Johnson, M. P., of Cape Breton, Mr. Covne, Manager of the Dominion Coul Company's Railway, Mr. McIsaac, M. P., Antigonish, and his wife and daughter, Miss Sewell, the clever authoress of that popular book "Black Beauty," and Hon. Mr. Fielding, who was especially solicitous for the welfare of the exentsiopists while in Hahlax. Mr. Brennan, of Summerside, Mr. Stewart, of Chatham, and Mr. Fulton, of Truro, were simply indispensable to the entertainment of the party, and contributed in no small measure to the pleasure of everyone.

If the Maritime Provinces were all joined together under one local government it would be a good thing for them and an advantage to the people in the saving of expense.

The Legislative Assembly room in Hatifax was one of the most interesting places visited there. The old portraits hanging on the walls testified to by-gone times and reminded us that our coentry was not a new one by any means.

Mr. D. McGillicuddy and Mr. D F. Burk kept everyone in good humor and proved they had kind | Star. true hearts for all mankind.

Everyone was delighted with their visit to Halifax and regretted more time could not have been spent in that old historic city.

The drive to the Chill was one of the most pleasant side-outings the

The ladies of the party, especially i the young ones, enjoyed the trip! immensely and will not need very much taging to accept an invitation for future excursions.

Res. Dr. Down and Colonel Matheson we believe were the only i ones connected with the present party who visited the Maritime Provinces on a similar excursion of the Press. Association, lifteen years ago.

The Cip was a revolution to again as the limited time at our disposal precluded us from seeing many places of interest.

Friend Young, of Cornwall, was the only disappointed man in the lot as he had no opportunity of engaging in deep sea fishing.

Mr "Smeaton" White, of the Montreal Gazetic writes so badly that when he registered at hotels he was taken for "Senator". White and treated with all the consideration due to a member of that distinguished body. He had the best room usually and a bed all to him self while other fellows whose names were easily read had to turn in two in a bed. He is a good fellow anyway and deserved the attention he received.

who favored us with his company for several days, only regretting that business engagements prevented his coming all the way. His many friends in Ontario will learn with pleasure that he is prospering and sheld in high exteem in the city where he now resides.

While in Halifax Mr. Mathison O Brien, the courteous matron. Nova Scottans should be proud of a their Institution and from all we could learn they are undoubtedly Mr. Pearon, the Principal, is doing a splendid, work there for the deal of Nova Scotta and Prince Edward Island, he spent most of his vacation in Bellast, Lis old Mr. Mathison regretted he home. did not see him.

On behalf of the Lanadian Press Association, Mr. D. McCallicuddy, of Goderich, and Mr. D. F. Burk, Port Arthur, have presented three handsome gold rings to gentlemen who assisted in making their jount through the Eastern Provinces a pleasant one. The rings bear the letters "C. P. A." on the outside, and inside is engraved the name of Justus recipient. Those receiving them can exposition in Buffalo Noah reports J. B. Lambkin, A. G. P. V. Lyons, G. P. and T. A., I. C. R., We are all glad-back in our mid-Moncton, N. B. , L. B. Archibald, Superintendent P. S. and D. cars. I C. R., Hahlax, N. S .- Toronto

At a meeting held on the train, from Quebec to Montreal, the tol lowing resolutions were adopted -

That the thenks of the members of the Canadian Press Association are due to Mr. Mexantamination are due to Mr. Mexantamination of the Canada Lisatery Bathway, for having so kipally places at the disposit of its members a special train while nourceying between Fredericton and Chanham also for the entertainment provided by himself and members of his family during the all too short supourn at Marvaville, on the or aston of the inspection of its several mopor tant industries party had. It is a seaside resort at Mount Pleasant, Stanhope, about fifteen miles from Charlottetown It is a good place for a prolonged summer stay.

President Macdonald and Sectetary Law made everything run limited to their colonial lailway, for the kind attention and thoughtful consideration, on the occasion of their trip, and the efforts pull forward to contribute to their confort and pleasure in which he was assisted by the gracious courteey of Mrs. Tillin They or obside to any fewar their hearty thanks to Mr. a. M. Lyons and Mr. L. H. Architecture.

TORONTO TOPICS.

It is our painful duty this time to chronicle the death of one of our young men in the person of who departed this life on the 22nd of The deceased had been in poor health for about two years, and although he was receiving the best of attention and care from the physicians in at tendance he never rallied. His death was not unexpected as he was suffering from an attack of hemorrhage of the lungs. A month before his death he was up to our Sunday afternoon service greeting old friends, looking in better epirits than he had been for a long time. On Saturday, August 10th, he had to take to his bed, not leaving his room again till death removed him. The funeral took place on August 24th to St. James Cemetery, and was largely attended. The pall bearers were Messes. McGillivray, Labelle, Reeves, Cropka, Elhott and O'Rourke. At the Bible Conference held in Toronto last winter when the deaf ther in attendance were We were pleased to meet our old a shod to come forward and confess their friend, Mr. Havke, of Moncton, sum and make up their minds to lead a better life, the late Mr. Gates was among the first to respond to the call. extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Uates and family in their and bereave ment

JONATHAN ADOLPHUS GATES.

Our friend, Mr. Brigden, has returned from the Old Country, where he spent the past two months renewing old acquaintances, looking the pecture of health.

Mr. C. Gillam, who was sent to the visited the Institution for the Deat | Gravenhurst Samtarum for Consump and Dumb and was kindly shown tives, has left that institution and through the building by Miss returned to the city, feeling much in the courts are protected, but it will be some time yet before he will be in his usual good heaith

Mr. and Mrs. H. Moore, who have been summering on Centre Island, have removed to the city and taken up residence in their new house on Howland Avenue.

Mr. Samuel Pugsley spout a few days at his home near Jarvis recently. Something must be attracting Sam's attention out west, as he says he wou't bo a " bach ' long.

During the summer some of us had the pleasure of meeting Messrs. Burns and Douglas from your Institute while in the city. Sorry they could not stay over to attend the Sunday service.

Mr A. A Melutosh spent his holidays in Muskoka. As usual he had no tish yarus to tell.

Miss Jessie Miniro spent her vacation in Bobcaygeon, the guest of Miss M.

Mt. N. Labelle took in the Pan-Amerihaving a good time and that the fair is

We are all glad to have Mr. Nasmith back in our midst. He returned on August 31st from China, where he went Mr. Frost, directo of as companion to the China Inland Mission. He has seen around the world, and while away met many former residents of Toronto. Hope he will give us a fecture on China at some convenient date.

During the summer we had quite a number of visitors from outside points. As far as your seribe can recollect the following were those who spent their holicays in the city—Miss Bessie Ball, Detroit. Matsel Ball, Windsor; N Cummigham, Mrs. R. M. Thomas, Oak ville, Miss A. James, Miss Templeton, Miss Bull, Miss Denussy, Belleville, Miss May McGilleray, Richmond Hill; Mrs. F Wheeler and daughter, St. Catherines, M. Wilson, Mr. Barley, Magara Falls, R. McPherson, W. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Waggener, J. Isbister, During the summer we had quite a Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner, J. Isbister, Mrs. Octheb, Mr. E. Gottheb, Hamil-ton, J. A. Branthwaite, Carluko, A. D. Swanson, Aiborta, N. W. T., Win McKay, Woodstock, Chas Mellentz, Midland: Mr. and Mrs. Pettiford, Quelph, Mr. and Mrs. Balis, Bollevillo; Miss Huddleston, West Virginia, Mr. Wm Nurse, Belleville.

Our annual plento was held at Niagara Falls on July 17th Owing to the weather being stormy the trip was far from enjoyable. All were glad to get back home.

Mrs. M. Zingg and daughter, Mrs. Marrin, of Berlin, took a trip to the Pacific Coast via Chicago during the summer. On the return true they ped off at Winnipeg, and visited the school for the Deat there.

What about playing a game of football with some senter team in the city before winter sets in. We have the material for a first class team, now that Mr. Wallace has removed to the city.

Our population has been sucreased lately. Mr. Geo. Dickson, of Purbrook, Muskoka, has secured a position with the Firstbrook Box Co. Mr. Geo. Wallaco, who has been employed by Mr. Bloom of Themesville, during the summer, has decided to become a resident of our fair city, he having secured employment in the Boockli Brush factory.

During the summer, pic nics were the order of the day, no less than ten being held in the different parks of the city In June the lady friends of Miss M. Hutchinson got up a pic-me to celebrate coming from Gallaudet grapia College, to which some ten couples were invited. Clames of various kinds were indulged in till a late hour, when all returned home tired but much pleased with the day's outing. The other one worthy of mention is the one given in honor of Mr. A. D. Swanson, who has just graduated from Gallaudet College, past graduated troit Canadate Consecutions of the degree of Bachelor of Aris. On one Saturday afternoon some twenty couples wended their way to Munco Park, the place selected for the pic-nic. It would take up too much space to men-tion everything. Suffice to say it was one of the best and most successful of the kind held in the city. During the ovening Mr. Swanson was made the recipicut of the following address:-

Toronto, July 20th, 1901. To Mexander D. Swanson, B. A.

To Mexander B. Swanson, B. A.

On behalf of your many friends in Toronto we desire to extend to you their sincere congramilations upon the success which has attended the steady patient and persistent endeavor, throughout the successive steps of your school and collecte life.

Your friends look with pride upon you for the honor you have gained, feeling that your brilliant success in passing the final examination and obtaining the much-coveted degree of liachelor of trie, reflects credit, not only upon your untire fown and county, but more especially upon yourself and the lifelyille Institute for the leaf, which has so thoroughly prepared the exound and well and truly laid the foundation upon which you have built such a successful college career.

Realizing that with the commencement of the new century you are entering into the avenue of the practical duties of life under such promising conditions, and teeling that your just is, in a sery practical way, an angury of your future, we shall be interested in a steling your progress, and anticipate for you great achievements in whatever life-work you choose to pursue, and to this end we all join in wishing you a hearty God-speech.

Surred

Oro. W Reeves, W Lightfoot, A A Melntosb, i C Shepherd, E C. inckard, Noah Labelle.

Mr. Swanson was taken completely by surprise, and in a few well chosen words thanked those present for their kind wisms.

Mr. Darnoy, of Brooklyn, N. Y, spent a portion of his vacation in the city, looking up old friends
Mr. Brown of New York, has been spending a few weeks in the city. 14 no stranger to Toronto, he having lived here years ago. He was in charge of our Sunday services on several occa-sions and his lectures were much approciated.

On August 17th our friends of Hamilton held a pie-ma in Oakville, to which they invited their Torouto Iriende During the afternoon a game of baseball took place between the two teams, and after a hard struggle the Torontoniana came out victorious by the score of 18

Messrs. Powers and Prince, teachers of the deaf in the Maritime Provinces, were interested visitors in the city for a for necks lately,

Mr. C. Pickard spent his vacation with his parents in Mount Forest.

The Missey J. Munroe M. Hutchinson, M. O'Neil and J. Burk took in the Pan-American Exposition.

The books that help a young mau, or anybody elso for that matter, are the books that interest him. Therefore & young man must select his own reading, if he is to read with any profit to himself.—September Ladies' Homo Journal.