As a Little Child

The story which follows is vouched for as true, and it is not surprising to be told that it has led hundreds to begin a Christian life. Read it through carefully.

Wi-yu's father and mother were pagans. She was a little Indian girl. She never heard a word about Jesus until she came to the mission. We were glad to take the children of pagans, even while both parents were living. One day Wi-yu walked up to me and said: "I want to give myself away to you." I was much surprised, but looked into the little girl's black eyes and said: "Why does Wi-yu wish to give herself to me?" "Because," said she simply, "I love you." After this, they all called Wi-yu my little girl.

One day, while Wi-yu sat by my side learning how to hem a pocket-handkerchief neatly, I asked her if she loved Jesus, of whom I had been talking to her. "No," she said, "I do not; but I want to. I want to be a Christian, but I'm too little."

"But Jesus says, 'Suffer the little children to come unto me.'"

"I don't know how to go to Him; I don't know what to do," said she.

"Wi-yu," said I, "you must give yourself away to Him." She looked at me in surprise.

"How can I do that?" she exclaimed.

"How did you give yourself away to me?"

"I came to you and asked you to take me, because I love you."

"Why do you love me, dear?" She hesitated a moment, and then answered, "I think it must be because you love me."

"Yes, Wi-yu, that's just the reason. Now, Jesus has been loving you all this time, while you have not been loving Him in the least for Him."

She stopped sewing, and sat very still awhile, thinking. I did not say a word, because I knew the Holy Spirit was teaching her. At last she said:

"Would Jesus be willing for me to give myself away to Him just as I did to you?"

"Certainly, my dear child; that is exactly what He wants you to do. He wants all of you, too. He wants your little feet to run for Him, your lips and tongue to speak for Him, and your whole heart to love Him."

After some more quiet thinking, Wi-yu knelt by my side and said: "My dear Jesus, I give myself away to you. I give you my hands, my feet, my mouth, my tongue, and my heart; I give you all of myself. Please take me, dear Jesus." She arose and said:

"Do you think He heard me?"

"I am sure of it," said I: "and you will find His answer in your little Testament." Together we found these precious words in the Indian Testament: "Any one that cometh unto me, I will not thrust aside." Believing that Jesus meant just what He said, she from this moment knew that she was His own dear, saved child.

How to Start a Home Department

"First. Get the proper printed instructions.

"Second. Proceed at once to carry them out.

"That's all."

We could not give better directions if we gave a whole page to it, and would only add that a leaflet, with full instructions as to how to begin a Home Department, will be sent free to any address. Write Editor Presbyterian S. S. Publications, Confederation Life Building, Toronto.

The Memory Passages in India

Miss Dr. McKellar and Miss Duncan, Neemuch, Central India, in their annual report, state that the scholars are learning the Memory Passages assigned by the General Assembly, and "hope to obtain diplomas along with their fairer sisters across the seas."
