

A signal service to weak womankind is the finding of lost health - the building up of "a run-down" system. Nothing does it so surely as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures all the derangements, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to the sex. It's the most perfect of strength-givers, imparting tone and vigor to the whole system. For overworked, debilitated teachers, milliners, seamstresses, "shop-girls," nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, it is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

"Favorite Prescription" gives satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it is promptly refunded. That's the way it's sold; that's the way its makers prove their faith in it. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Prop'r's, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

RICE PUDDING.—Put one quart of sweet milk in a double boiler, add one cup of rice, nicely washed, boil slowly until soft, then salt to taste and served with whipped cream or custard; or it is nice with hard sauce.

CRACKER PUDDING.—Two cupfuls of crackers broken into small pieces, two quarts of milk, two beaten eggs, one cupful of milk, two beaten eggs, one cupful of raisins, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, half a teaspoonful of salt, three-quarters of a cupful of sugar. Butter the pudding-dish, pour in the mixture, set in a shallow dish of water and bake until not milky, stirring two or three times during the first of the baking. Eat with good hard sauce.

COMPOTE—RHUBARB AND RICE—Cut a small bundle of rhubarb into inch pieces; after peeling put into a stewpan with one and one-half pounds of white sugar; simmer until rhubarb is cooked. Pour off the syrup, and reduce by boiling to one-half, then add the rhubarb and let it cool. Boil some rice in milk with a little sugar added; let it cook tender, then cool. Make a border of rice in a glass dish, and put the rhubarb in the centre, and serve with powdered sugar over it.

COTTAGE HEARTH LEMON PIE.—One slice of bread soaked in hot water, one cup of sugar, the juice and grated rind of one lemon. Beat well together, and bake with two crusts. This makes about a pint, and I bake it in a deep plate. Now that rhubarb is in season, instead of the regulation pie I take a nappy, butter it, put in sugar, a sprinkling of flour, then rhubarb peeled and cut in small pieces. Add more sugar, and cover with a nice biscuit crust. When ready to serve, turn it out bottom side up on a deep plate.

FOUND AT HOME WHAT HE SOUGHT FOR IN VAIN ABROAD.

A Toronto man a few years ago travelled for some months in Europe. The next year he roamed over the prairies of the North-West, all in search of health and relief from dyspepsia. Three years ago he began to diet on Dedicated Wheat made by the Ireland National Food Co., and that cured him. He gained fifteen pounds in weight, and is now in excellent health.

It has helped every practical man. Shakspeare is delightful, Bunyan is encouraging, but this book is both of these and more—it is necessary. There is another book which has helped and encouraged thousands. It is filled from cover to cover with the signed indorsements of many well known Divines, six college presidents, and a number of professional men and women who have all been restored to health and strength by the use of Compound Oxygen. Compound Oxygen is a concentration of ozone. It is charged with electricity. You inhale it, at once a genial glow pervades the system, for, in order to use it you must release the Oxygen by heat. A tin cup of warm water frees the current and sends an oxygenated vapor to the breathing surfaces that heals—warms—revitalizes.

The Book will tell the rest—rather the patients will tell you for they do the talking in its pages. You can correspond with them if you like.

This Book will be sent entirely free of charge to any one who will address

TO COOK PARSNIPS.—Scrape them and boil till tender, then cut them in long slices about one-third of an inch thick. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Dip the slices in melted butter and in flour. Place two table-spoonfuls of butter in the frying-pan and as soon as it is melted cover the bottom of the pan with the parsnips. Fry them brown, turn and when done place on a hot dish.

DONALD KENNEDY

Of Roxbury, Mass., says

My Medical Discovery seldom takes hold of two people alike! Why? Because no two people have the same weak spot. Beginning at the stomach it goes searching through the body for any hidden humor. Nine times out of ten, inward humor makes the weak spot. Perhaps it is only a little sediment left on a nerve or in a gland; the Medical Discovery slides it right along, and you find quick happiness from the first bottle. Perhaps its a big sediment or open sore, well settled somewhere, ready to fight. The Medical Discovery begins the fight, and you think it pretty hard, but soon you thank me for making something that has reached your weak spot. Price $1.50. Sold by every Druggist in the United States and Canada.
