

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

IN 1887 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its forty-fourth year, having met with continuous commendation and success.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives fifty-two numbers of sixty-four pages each, or more than Three and a Quarter Thousand double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a completeness nowhere else attempted.

The best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Serial and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature, and from the pens of the FOREMOST LIVING WRITERS.

The ablest and most cultivated intellects, in every department of Literature, Science, Politics, and Art, find expression in the Periodical Literature of Europe, and especially of Great Britain.

The Living Age, forming four large volumes a year, furnishes, from the great and generally inaccessible mass of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all, is satisfactory in the COMPLETENESS with which it embraces whatever is of immediate interest, or of solid, permanent value.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep pace with the events or intellectual progress of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family general intelligence and literary taste.

OPINIONS.

"To have THE LIVING AGE is to hold the keys of the entire world of thought, of scientific investigation, psychological research, critical note, of poetry and romance. . . It has never been so bright, so comprehensive, so diversified in interest, as it is to-day."—Boston Traveller.

"It is one of the publications that intelligent people regard as practically indispensable. From its pages one learns what the world is thinking about. . . It is an education in itself, as well as an entertainment."—Hartford Courant.

"It contains nearly all the good literature of the time. . . There is nothing noteworthy in science, art, literature, biography, philosophy, or religion, that can not be found in it. . . It is a library in itself."—The Churchman, New York.

"It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page."—New-York Tribune.

"Nearly the whole world of authors and writers appear in it in their best moods. . . The reader is kept well abreast of the current thought of the age."—Boston Journal.

"Through its pages alone, it is possible to be as well informed in current literature as by the perusal of a long list of monthlies."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"The subscription price is slight in comparison with the mass of the best current literature which it brings with it in its weekly visits. . . In fact, a reader needs no more than this one publication to keep him well abreast of English periodical literature."—Sunday School Times, Philadelphia.

"Foremost of the eclectic periodicals."—N.Y. World.

"It furnishes a complete compilation of an indispensable literature."—Chicago Evening Journal.

"It enables its readers to keep fully abreast of the best thought and literature of civilization."—Christian Advocate, Pittsburgh.

"It is absolutely without a rival. . . Coming once a week, it gives, while yet fresh, the productions of the foremost writers of the day. . . Essay and review, biography, travel, science, fiction, poetry, the best of each and all is here placed within reach."—Montreal Gazette.

"It saves not only time, but money."—Pacific Churchman, San Francisco.

"It has become indispensable."—New York Observer.

"It keeps well up its reputation for being the best periodical in the world."—Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C.

ANNEXATION.

For nearly half a century the AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST has annexed thousands of Canadians to its great family of readers, and to still further increase this number, the publishers are going to devote special attention to Canadian agriculture during 1887.

The great staff of editors, who for over a quarter of a century have made this periodical the recognized authority upon all matters pertaining to agriculture, horticulture, etc., has now been reinforced with a staff of well-known contributors.

The JUVENILE, HEARTH and HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENTS have been enlarged, and HUMBUG Exposures are to receive additional attention.

1000 ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATIONS.—Every issue of the American Agriculturist contains nearly 100 original illustrations of animals, plants, new farm and household conveniences and appliances, out-door scenes, etc.

SPLendid ENGRAVINGS FREE !!!

HOMES OF OUR FARMER PRESIDENTS.—It is noteworthy that a majority of our Presidents were reared on farms, or retired from public life to rural scenes. The American Agriculturist is now publishing and sending free to all subscribers, at an outlay of over $30,000, superb engravings (18 by 24 inches in size) of these Homes, together with special descriptive papers by James Parton, Donald G. Mitchell and other eminent living American authors. These Engravings constitute a magnificent portfolio for the walls of a prince or peasant's home. Subscriptions for 1887, immediately forwarded, are entitled to all the series, beginning in May last.

ENDORSED BY THE U. S. GOVERNMENT.—Vol. 8th, Tenth Census, U. S., says: "The American Agriculturist is especially worthy of mention, because of the remarkable success that has attended the unique and untiring efforts of its proprietors to increase and extend its circulation. Its contents are duplicated every month for a German Edition, which also circulates widely."
