At the regular monthly Missionary Meeting, held on the evening of May 25, papers were read by C. H. McIntyre and H. T. DeWolfe. The Society was pleased also to listen to an address from Dr. Higgins, Prof. in Mathematics. The music on the occasion was furnished by the Seminary Choir. The various reports testify to the success and healthy state of the Society.

THE annual Sophomore demonstration, although characterized by more of the do-unto-others as you-would be-done by spirit than of previous years, proved quite a success. As soon after the concert as those who had the company of some fair damsels could return the said blessings in safety to the arms of their dear mammas, and could collect at the trysting place, this noble band took possession of the slope to the south of the College, where, notwithstanding the unfavourable weather, they displayed fireworks quite successfully. At a later hour they attacked with spirit a sumptuous repast spread in a class-mate's room. With but little exertion the table was soon cleared. The toasts and songs which followed the supper took no inconsiderable place in the performance. The addresses and music could not fail to impress even those with a motto of "blood and thunder," that such a demonstration, although a little out ! of line with the regular performances, was more elevating, educating, refining and conducive to that approval of conscience which, however weak, yet speaks, than the form of demonstration usually adopted.

THE CENTURY

For 1886-7.

THE CENTURY is an illustrated monthly magazine, having a regular circulation of about two hundred thousand copies, often reaching and sometimes exceeding two hundred and twenty-five thousand. Chief among its many attractions for the coming year is a serial which has been in active preparation for sixtoen years. It is a history of our own country in its most critical time, as set forth in

THE LIFE OF LINCOLN,

BY HIS CONFIDENTIAL SECRETARIES, JOHN G. NICOLAY AND COL. JOHN HAY.

This great work begun with the sanction of President Lincoln, and continued under the authority of his son, the Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, is the only full and authoritative record of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Its authors were friends of Lincoln before his presidency; they were most intimately associated with him as private secretaries throughout his term of office, and to them were transferred on Lincoln's death all his private papers. Here will be told the inside history of the civil war and of President Lincoln's administration,—important details of which have hitherto remained unrevealed, that they might first appear in this authentic history. By reason of the publication of this work, which has been followed with unflagging interest by a great audience, will occupy less space during the coming year.

Gettysburg will be described by Gen. Hunt (Chief of the Union Artillery), Gen. Longstreet, Gen. E. M. Law, and others; Chickamauga, by Gen. D. H. Hill; Sherman's march to the Sea, by Generals Howards, and Slocum. Generals Q. A. Gilmore, Wm. F. Smith, John Gibbon, Horace Porter, and John S. Moshy will describe special battles and incidents. Stories of naval engagements, prison life, etc., etc., will appear.

NOVELS AND STORIES.

"The Hundredth Man," a novel by Frank R. Stockton, author of "The Iady or the Tiger?" etc., begins in November.

Two Novellettes by George W. Cable, stories by Mary Hallock Foote, "Uncle Remus," Julian Hawthorne, Edward Eggleson, and other prominent American authors will be printed during the year.

SPECIAL FEATURES

(with illustrations) include a series of articles on affairs in Russia and Siberia, by George Kennan, author of "Tent Life in Siberia," who has just returned from a most eventful visit to Siberian prisons; papers on the Feod Question, with reference to its bearing on the Labor Problem; English Cathedrals; Dr. Eggleston's Religious Life in the American Colonies; Men and Women of Queen Anne's Reign, by Mrs. Oliphant; Clairvoyance, Spiritualism Astrology, etc., by the Rov. J. M. Buckley, editor of the Christian Advocate; astronomical papers; articles throwing light on Bible history, etc.
