WEITTER FOR THE TRUE WITNESS. SHORT SERMONS FOR SINCERE SOULS. No. XX.

" THOU SHALT NOT KILL."

"Wo to the world because of scandal" In order, Christian soul, to understand thoroughly the enormity of the sin of scandal, let us look at it in its origin. Who was the first scandalizer? Who in its output of scandal ? Ah, alas! Christian soul, in its origin. the sin dates back to the very commencement of the world-to the garden of Paradise; it was the ine worke that soiled the fair face of God's creation ; it was the origin and cause of all sin. The serpent, it was into origin and on the origin of an origin. In serpent, iurking in the grass, was the first scandalizer; the devil, Eve's tempter, is the Prince of scandal. In devil, Eve's tempter, is the device of scandal. the calm and peaceful shade of Paradise, Adam and Eve knew only happiness and contentment. No the morrow, no labour, no sickness, no pain. All was peace; all was calm. But the tempter was at hand. He had seen with envy the stupendous sc of the creation wherein a world was created for man-he had heard the command of God, giving over the garden of Paradise for all time into the over the Burn, with the sole and trivial restriction of good and evil that stood in the middle of the garden. Once a beauteous angel, this tempter had ministered around the throne of the Great God. In a moment of trial he had allowed pride and a rebellious heart to overcome him, and had impiously desired to be like anto God. And now he was a demon of hell, hating God, who had so justly punished his rebellion, and striving in all things to thwart and frustrate His designs. Amidst the fair flowers of the garden of Paradise, under the form of a serpent, he lurked watching a moment when he might deface, if he could not wholly destroy, that beautoous creation could not wholly desired, and an All-Powerful God had which an All-Wise and an All-Powerful God had but just called into existence. If he cannot strike that the drawing will positively be held the first day scaled for and small-pox are still rife. In any but just canted into the deside the deside his of August next, (1873,) in the city of Montreal, at God himself, he can at least seek to deside his of August next, (1873,) in the city of Montreal, at at the number of the former of the terrete after the the Cabinet de Lecture Paroissial, opposite the Semiimage and likeness of God. He tempts Eve and she falls and with her all mankind until the end of the world. Here then is your model, O Scandaliser! the world. The first scandal-the fall of our first of Montreal has sent a letter to his clergy contain- employed by the city authorities in scavenging. parents Adam and Eve from that high estate of ing the following :---"I beg to inform you that the happiness for which God had created them. Do you n cognise yourself, O scandulizer, in this horrid you recognise pointson, o scaupalizer, in this normal is under the auspices of the Episcopate, and measures demon-in this snake in the grass? Once an angel of have been taken to provent any deception. We light, he is now a demon. Once an honored and specially note that a great part of the profite with pure spirit ministering around the throne of God, he is now an outcast and a rebel, plotting vain things against the cternal King. Once bathed in the re-splendent light of the Godhead, he floats now supine upon the flames of hell. And is this the Prince of scandal ? is this your model ? O Scandalizer! undoubtedly; yes, for before he was, scandal was not. He was the first stumbling block that was cast upon the carth. You have need to be proud of your plince, O scandalizer! you have need to admire your model. Speaking of him the Holy Spirit in the Book of Job (8) tells you "he was a murderen Whatl was not Cain then the from the beginning." first murderer ? Yes, the first murderer of the body but your Prince of scandal was the murderer of the 5. To the Jesuits..... soul; nay : he was also a murderer of the body, for did he not bring death into the world? Your model then, your patron, your first ancestor O scandalizer, must take precedence even of Cain. Satan, the tempter, was a murderer from the beginning. Who does not shrink with horror from the presence of the murderer ? Who would wish to rest for one moment under the same roof with a homi-But the scandalizer is worse than the cide 7 murderer-as much so as the life of the soul is more precious, more eternal than the life of the Why do you not shring with horror then body. from every scandulizer? from every murderer of souls?

But if you would know in all its fulness the guilt of scandal, learn it from the effects of this first scandal. The author of all scandal is repulsive and hateful enough both in his person and in his disposition, but the effects of his scandal are more terrible, more hateful still. For what was the effect of this scandal ? It first brought sin and death into the world.

Sin. How many sins are committed in a single household in a single day ? How many in a village? how many in a town? how many in those citiesmany are committed in every village, town and eity of the world I how many sins does the sun look | without looking at the urn and hand it to the over-of Sodom and Gomorrah? In hell .-- In hell for centuries and centuries. And with how many is this hell peopled ? With every individual man who has died in a state of mortal sin. We look upon the waters of the deluge as very terrible because they destroyed man from off the face of the earth for a few short years. We look upon the fire of Sodom and Gomorrah as fearful because it destroyed two sinful cities. But the sin of scandal has been destroying souls, not for forty days and forty nights only, but for upwards of 5000 years; peopling hell with souls to suffer there amidst its torments for all eternity. Look down then, Christian soul, into the dark depths of hell and you will begin to realize the guilt of that first scandal. Number the damued and the days of their suffering and you will have in figures at least some slight estimate of the power of this crime. But there is one term yet in this fearful calculation, whose value none but the damned themselves can determine. Who amongst living men shall estimate the strength of the torments of ages will alone be very terrible, but the torture of which you too have alas been guilty! Do you not you not pray God with all the energy of your soul late years .- Gazette. to keep you ever free from it?

MR. J. M. BELLEW .- The treat which will be offered in a few days to the Montreal public by the University Literary Society should meet with a hearty response from our citizens. The opportunity will probably never be offered again of hearing this great master of elocution, J. M. Bellew, and we would hell. The torture of imprisonment for ages of strongly advise those who have not secured tickets to do so at once, and we can safely say that it will its torments, who but the damned themselves shall be money and time well spent. The young men estimate? And yet here, too, we have the effects of connested with the McGill Literary Society deserve hands of man, with the sole and divisit losing of that first s andsl. Oh unhappy scandalizer! behold the thanks of the community for the truly public not eating the fruit of the middle of the garden. Here the effects of that sin of Satan, the tempter of anirit that the here the middle of the garden. men of such eminent ability as Mr. Bellew, whose loathe it? And you, Christian soul, do you not fame on the other side of the Atlantic, as a reader shudder at beholding it? de you not abhor it? do is far beyond that of any other who has appeared of CLEANLINESS OR DEATH .- The snow-covering which has concealed the winter's accumulation of filth is rapidly being removed. Streets, yards, and back lanes are filled with reeking ordure, with occasional dead dogs and cats and other things offensive. The that every one will consider it his duty to take tickets | rains and the sun are beginning to send up deadly effluvia from all this putrefaction. Cholera is a pos case at the usual rate of mortality, bad air may sweep away before mid-summer more victims than those who perished in the wreck of the "Atlantic." Shall we clean up thoroughly or court death? Now is the morning at ten o'clock. His Grace the Bishop the time for action. Every available man should be Thorough inspection should be made of all offensive places, and prompt measures taken to enforce cleanliness. Every householder should earefully inspect his premises, and ascertain what filth has been allowed to accumulate in yard, lane or cellar, if drains are all right and free from obstruction, leaks and rat-holes. A little trouble and expense now will be rewarded with much comfort, confidence and satisfaction. Carelessness now may exact the penalty Our Irish Catholic fellow-citizens will be gratified of sickness hereafter-much more costly and troublesome than cleaning now. Besides one has no right to endanger the health of one's neighbour. In addition to cleaning, the use of disinfectants is very important. Lime and chloride of lime are the best. and should be freely used; and dirty walls and fences should be lime-washed. If men are careless of these things, let the women take them up, and not rest till all putrid accumulations are removed. Remember that it is the poor little ones who suffer most from stench and malaria; and with them the question may be cleanliness or death .- Mont. Witness.

From the Ottawa Citizen we learn that the lightfingered gentry who visit the capital every session of Parliament to reap a harvest from the assembled legislators and other visitors to the city have again made their appearance in Ottawa. The police have been paying particular attention to the practitioners, and succeeded in bringing two disreputable characters before the magistrate the other day. They hail from Montreal, and one of them was convicted on a charge of larceny in Ottawa last fall.

KINGSTON, April 14.-The ice in the harbor is gradually disappearing, but it will likely be some days yet before navigation is completely open and uninterrupted. On Saturday the ferry steamer Pierrepont cut her way through the icc-bridge to the open channel. Since then she and the Water town have made several trips. The sailors' strike continues, "Two dollars per day or no work" is the Union motto, and it is probable they will realize the concluding words of this war cry unless they come to more moderate terms. Captains and owners of vessels are very anxious and impatient to resume their shipping business, as freights are high.

offering of insult against the eternal God. Taking this mass of crime then as one day's sin, what think you are the sins of a whole year? of a whole century? How many sins has the world committed inte the Reformation? since Chrysostom thundered against the vices of the East? since Jusus Christ came into the world to lay down his life for sin " and yet each and all of these sins, O scandalizer, were the result of that first scandal of your Prince the fiend tempter. He it was brought sin and death into the world. And if the sins of the Christian world have been inumerable, how many sins had man committed, think you, in this wicked world before Christ came to suve? Let your mind go back through the time of the Machabees-through the time of the prophets-through the time of the patriarchs-until in its tremendous and bewildering flight it rests at length with Noah's Ark upon the wat rs of the deluge. Resting there, let it take in during all thuse ages, not the sins of the Jewish Prople only, but the sins of the whole pagan world. Let it contemplate this huge mass of sin and then let it say to itself and to the world in slow and solemn accents' This is the effect of one scandal. Nor, Christian soul, is our calculation ended. We have yet if possible the most sinful period of man's history to contemplate. From the deluge to the creation of Adam, man's sine had been so numerous and so abominable, that God repented him that he had created man and sent the waters of the deluge to destroy him. Bohold here then a huge mass of sin! here from the first sin of Eve to the last sin which is being committed this moment, behold here the stupendous effects of one sin of scandait

But the tempter's scandal brought not only sin but death into the world. Who shall count the children of Adam? Who shall number the men and women that have lived upon the earth since our first parents were expelled from Paradise? Medes and Persians and Jews and Egyptians and Greeks and Romans and Oarthagenians and Gauls and Huns and Goths and Piets and Scots and Celts and Franks and Saxons-who shall number the tribes of the earth ? And yet overy individual man of these has had to lay down his life in punishment of that first scandal.

But, Christian soul, if you would understand the tremendous effects of the sin of scandal, I know of only one place where you will fully realize them. That place is the mouth of hell. Listen to the howlings and imprecations and blasphemies that come up from that dark pit and count them if you can. They are the fruits of that first scandal. And how long have they last d? If Cain not having explated on earth his terrible sin, went down to hell at his death, how long has he been suffering in that terrible inst. place? Upwards of 5000 years, Where are the DECORATIONS.—His Honor Lieut.-Governor Caron sculs of all those men and women who were over, has been appointed Commander of the Order of St. The med by the deluge? If the sufferings of their Gregory, and Hon. Mr. Chauvesa, Knight of the terrible drath served not to explate their sins, they Second Cross in the Order of Pius IX. Mr. Chautoo are burning in Hell. Where are the inhabitants | yeau is also Knight of the Order of St. Gregory.

s, and the number coming first will be the first and so on. Consequently the winning numwill be drawn first from the urn, so no one will w the number that will be first drawn, nor the nd or following. This mode of drawing is cernly the most fair and just, and in which no do. we have not yet got near to the sum total of the world's huge sin. We have only seen one day's tickets have been left, will be kind enough to make a report on or before the first day of July next, for all tickets unsold at that date must be returned to me. All those whose tickets have not been, or shall not be published, must address the undersigned without delay. For more ample information address the undersigned, G. H. DUMESNIL,

Manager and Treasurer of the Villa Maria Lottery.

April 2nd, 1873.

THE RIVER .- The principal topic of conversation on the street yesterday was the state of the river. Hundreds lined the revotment wall watching the movement of the ice. Yesterday morning, at two o'clock, a preliminary shove took place. The ice was piled high opposite the Custom House, also in front of Wind Mill Point. The water rose steadily and it is expected that to-day it will reach the level of the revetment wall. The moment that happens there will be a flood in Griffintown. There are serious apprehensions of an overflow in that locality. Water has already appeared in St. Patrick street, and if there is no chapge within the next forty-eight hours we may have to deplore the scenes of 1861, 1865 and 1869. The wind blew keen from the north yesterday retarding the march of the ice, but towards evening it fell and there must be a consequent change to-day. At Terrebonne the flood has already begun its devastation, and at Sault au Recollect the ice has shoved badly. Two men ventured over from St. Lamberts yesterday, and the Longueuil crossing is still perfectly sound. All kinds of conjectures are indulged in. The worst is feared and it is well that preparations should be made. One experienced gentleman has given in his opinion that there will be a steamboat in Montreal Harbour by next Sunday .- Gazette, 15th inst.

EUTHANABIA .- Perhaps some of our readers may not recognize in this word the synonym of the much common word "suicide." That, however, in plain homely language, is what is now recommended in an article on euthansia by the writers in an English magazine which comes from the house of what is called a respectable publisher, and makes great pretences to philosophy. It is a strange outcome certainly of our nineteen centuries of Christianity that we should have at this day men who re-vamp for us the mere stoicism of the Pagan nations; and not much less that after seeing the wretched political and social revolutions of a neighbouring country where this Pagan philosophy once flourished for a few years, we should have men of cultured minds endeavouring to engraft upon English soil such noxious vagaries of the imagination .- Herald 17th
