"I say, Brown, that's a good thing, and a fine subject."

"Oh yes—a fine subject. But it requires a great artist to treat it. I think I may try that myself sometime."

Faithful to the end—a dog's tail

At a meeting of the London trades union councils in London, in April, a woman was present as delegate for the first time in the history of the organization. The lady was Mrs. Hicks, representing a ropemaker's union.

A DEMAND THAT WAS HEARD
AROUND THE WORLD.

This is a strong cartoon in this week's issue of Judge. It pictures President Harrison holding the United States flag backed by a united North and South, standing firm in defense of this country's rights. Chili, being wrong, is represented as making ample apology. The front page shows one how the democratic majority under the leader Holman, the watch-dog of the treasury has cut off all appropriations of every kind. He is represented as a country tailor who has sadly delapidated Uncle Sam's garments. It is the best sort of a Republican argument. Get this week's Judge of your newsdealer. Price, 10 cents.

ALCY—"Oh, I say, Weggie Miss Budd awsked after you last evening."

WEGGIE—"The divine cweature! What did she say?"

ALCY—"She wanted to know who was your chaperwone. I've been wondering all day what she meant."

"I often wonder," he said as they stood in the yellowness of a moonlit night, "what my last words will be." And not a vestige of sarcastic intent lurked in her mind as she answered, "So do I, George. I should so love to hear them."

THE WIND AND THE WINDY CITY.—A Chicago editor suggests that if the atmosphere grows much worse in that city it will have to be taken in capsules.

"Pat, Pat! you should never hit a man when he is down." "Begorra! what did I work so hard to get him down for?"
