liberty, and clothes its aspirations in the robes of order and peace, opening a school of discipline to the unquiet races of the world. In an age of freedom this makes our government the queen of nations. Win America for Christ's truth and love and all is won. Liberty and order, wealth and genius, must all be won into the services of true religion. The justice and peace of Christ are to be found only in his Church.

Today's events is the Holy See's approval of the American Apostolate. Bishop Cusack is Peter's living document. It is a message saying to the Catholics of America: "Go forward with the missions to non-Catholics."

Let the diocesan clergy make

It was in the New York Apostolate that our new bishop was all pate. He is now made a bishop because he was so good a missionary. What can he ever be but a missionary bishop? God made him a missionary that he might be worthy of the episcopate, a servant of all the people, a devoted lover of Christ's "other sheep." We knew him as a powerful preacher and as a stalwart character, but yet as a humble and poor priest, disinterunostentatious; simple, averse to parade and unfounded show, yet knowing well the apostolic uses of the public press; a foe to indulgence routine, legalism; low views of priestly perfection; a diocesan priest winning the affection- ed of introducing the sordid eleate admiration of the religious or- ment into the conversation, and he ders, in whose chosen work he has actually blushed. I said that, as it been privileged to assist.

In his field of labor he has led a pect a large sum. Indeed I should band of unsurpassed missionaries not ask it, and that I should be of the pastoral clergy, the advance content with say, ten guineas per guard of a great army of diocesan thousand words. He arose and remissionaries. He has not been a garded me with admiration, and, noisy reformer, nor a self-invested with a voice faltering with emotion inquisitor; yet a terror to scandal- said: evil-doers, saloon-keepers, "No, no, my dear young sir!
