CANADA-CENTRAL AMERICA

CONTADORA ACCORD

COMMENTARY

CTV Canada AM Nov. 21/84

(Interview with Mexican Ambassador to Canada, José Andres de Oteyza)

Mr. Oteyza said the meeting with Clark is being held to possibly get some economic aid and development for the region. He said he would like to see Canada bring its prestige and international respect into dealings in Central America and convince all those involved, including the U.S. not to intervene with the peace plan proposed by the Contadora countries.
