

3. The representatives and staff shall be subject to the laws and regulations in force of the other Contracting Party, and each Contracting Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity and with the minimum of delay and to the extent permitted under the national laws and regulations, grant the necessary employment authorizations, visitor visas or other similar documents to the representatives and staff referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

4. Both Contracting Parties shall, to the extent possible and subject to national laws and regulations, dispense with the requirement of employment authorizations or other similar documents for personnel performing certain temporary services and duties except in special circumstances determined by the national authorities concerned. Where such authorizations or documents are required, they shall be issued promptly so as not to delay the entry into the State of the personnel concerned.

Article 8

1. Certificates of airworthiness, certificates of competency and licences, issued or rendered valid by one Contracting Party and still in force, shall be recognized as valid by the other Contracting Party for the purpose of operating the agreed services on the specified routes provided that such certificates or licences were issued or rendered valid pursuant to, and in conformity with, the standards established under the Convention.
